CARD PARTY, DANCE BY CLUB SECTION SOCIAL EVENT

About 250 Persons Are Present in New Odd Fellows' Hall at Pleasing Gathering

The St. Patrick's day card party and dance given last night at the new Odd Fellows' hall at Broadway and Orange streets by the members of the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, of which Mrs. A. H. Montgomery is curator, proved to be a big success, with about 250 persons present.

The hall was appropriately decorated for the occasion with streamers of green crepe paper, which also shaded the lights, and the St. Patrick's motifs marked the tally cards. Music for dancing was furnished by the Budd and Dillinger's Gaiety Four orchestra.

So pleasing was the response to this social event that the members decided to repeat it in the nature of a "sport dance" to be given April 18.

Winners of Prizes

Men's prizes at bridge were awarded to R. A. Puffer, first; H. N. MacMullin, second; J. G. Golden, third; G. H. Schulte, fourth.

Women's prizes at bridge were awarded to Mrs. McCann, first; Mrs. John Dunn, second; Mrs. C. A. Meadows, third; Mrs. Pearl Curran, fourth.

At 500 the men's prizes were awarded as follows: Mr. Johnson, first; C. O. Kling, second; Horace Hosford, third; Mark Harris, fourth.

Women's prizes at 500 were awarded to Mrs. L. P. Abell, first; Mrs. Allen, second; Mrs. J. H. Hearnshaw, third; Mrs. Mark Harris, fourth.

During the evening punch was served. Cake and coffee were also on sale during the evening. Various committees in charge at this delightful card party and dance included the following:

Reception committee, Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Sr., Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, Mrs. Chester Kling, Mrs. Calvin Whiting and Mrs. Bert Ward. Coffee and cake, Mrs. B. O. Holbrook and Mrs. Eustace Young. Tickets at door, Mrs. Walter Jones and Mrs. W. Halstead.

The check room was in charge of Mrs. Homer Lockwood, assisted by Mrs. Kingsley and Mrs. Vandewater. Mrs. H. W. Ralston and Mrs. William Hunter, assisted by the Horner

Get Acquainted Day at High School to Be Observed Monday

"Howdy."

Yeah, howdy!

Monday will be "howdy" day at Glendale Union High school.

There is every intimation that the large majority of students—and some teachers, too—will suffer pinched hands and blistered backs, for the big idea is this:

Everybody is to get acquainted by shaking hands, or going up behind the other and slapping them on the back. After that painful process is over, each will stop and take time to read the placard worn by the others, reading:

"Howdy, My Name Is (Mudd, or whatever it may be).

Otis Goodman Guest of Honor at Party

Mrs. Stella A. Goodman of 645 North Central avenue entertained Friday night with a card and dancing party in honor of her brother, Otis Goodman, who is leaving today for the north for the summer. The house was elaborately decorated with green and white artificial flowers and a dainty green and white color scheme was carried out in the refreshments and all appointments of the evening.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Daub, Mr. and Mrs. E. Warren, Mrs. Mary Oliver, Miss Anna Campbell, all of Glendale, H. Barry of Catalina, T. H. Cacina of Los Angeles, Edwin Pickett of Glendale and the guest of honor, Otis Goodman. The music for the dancing was furnished by a player piano which Mrs. Goodman has just placed in her home.

Mrs. John Dean of Elsinore Is Honored

Mrs. John E. Rockhold of 330 West Burchett street entertained Friday with a prettily appointed luncheon in honor of Mrs. John Dean of Elsinore. The table was centered with marigolds which made a beautiful contrast to the appointments of emerald green in keeping with St. Patrick's day. The occasion was a very happy reunion of intimate friends who had not enjoyed a day together for two years. Those present were Mrs. John Dean, Mrs. J. E. Eckles, Mrs. Robert D. Jones, Mrs. Jay S. Jackson, Mrs. John W. Sharpe and Mrs. Rockhold.

SCOUTS AND FRIENDS ENJOY ST. PATRICK DAY PARTY

Troop Two Takes Its Guests to Woodlands Cabin in Decorated Car

The Glendale Boy Scouts of Troop Two and their friends enjoyed one of the happiest of the many parties that were given in celebration of St. Patrick's day, Friday night at the boy scout cabin on the Chandler place in Verdugo Woodland. A special car was provided for them by the manager, P. L. Hatch, of the Montrose railway, which left at 7:30. The car, which was elaborately decorated with boughs of greenery, had all the lights shaded with green. Upon arrival they found the cabin decorated with a profusion of green, with crepe paper streamers and lights also shaded with the emerald hue. A welcome fire glowed in the splendid fireplace which contributed to the cheeriness of the place.

The evening was spent with the jolliest of old fashioned games, St. Patrick games, circle games, potato golf, under the direction of Ben Robinson. The prize for potato golf was awarded to Virginia Abbey, and to Charles Mambert went the prize for the slang game.

Refreshments were especially dainty and pretty. The ice cream was white brick with a shamrock through the center. The cakes were snowy white with emerald icing, the paper napkins were specially made with Irish figures and the troop monogram.

Patronesses for the affair were Mrs. A. A. Barton, Mrs. Benj. Robinson, Mrs. C. G. Farrell, and Mrs. Charles L. Chandler. The guests included Miss Glady Sharpe, Margaret Longley, Marilyn Manbert, Dorothy Syms, Katherine Stofft, Dorothy Webster, Dorothy Houston, Valera Trimmer, Kathleen Carr, Lura Mae Davis, Carolyn Ayars, Aves Young, Louise Vorwerk, Margaret Farmer, Lois Strother, Marian Duey, Virginia Glass, Virginia Abbey, Verna Colling, Marcella Webb, Katherine Bender, Beryl Goodale, Lucile Beach, Marjorie Hart, Wilma Gasser, Frederica Browne, Alice Hill. The hosts for the affair were C. G. Ferrell, Jr., Fred Andrews, Thomas Wood, Jr., Leslie Hatch, Terrell Morse, Bob Frazee, Charles Morlwy, Arthur M. Witton, Charles Kauser, Dave Chandler, Donald Morrow, Claude Creight, Wilbur Booth, John Klann, Glendon Bussy, Kenneth Greenlaw, Horace Brown, Franklyn Wolcot, Burton Kuntzner, Kenneth Miles, Dallas Kalbaugh, Arthur Barton, Robert Hatch, David Roberts, Clifford Walcott, Floyd Craft and Ben Robinson.

Mrs. Vernon Putman Is Hostess to Chapter

The members of Chapter CJ, P. E. O., met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Vernon Putman, president, at 208 West Elk avenue, with Mrs. Durham Porter as assisting hostess. After a short business session a splendid address was made by Mrs. E. W. W. Hayward on "Women in Politics," emphasizing the duties of women to become familiar with politics that they may vote intelligently. Miss Martha Cox gave a talk on "The Laws of California."

After the program the chapter members adjourned to the dining room, where at tables decorated with spring blossoms the hostesses served refreshments, and a social hour was enjoyed. Guests of the chapter included Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. W. C. Wattles of Glendale and Mrs. Alspaugh of Eagle Rock.

Why That Publicity? Questions Chicago Man

E. F. Sanders, assistant secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, received a letter this morning from A. H. Gairns, superintendent of the American Car & Foundry company at Chicago, in which he stated that he could not understand why Hollywood got so much publicity in murder stories.

They have murder every day in Chicago, according to that "home town booster" and the papers hardly give it a paragraph. Some day, he thinks, they will be writing up killings in the sporting sections.

Oh, yes. He sent his regards to Dr. R. V. Hogue, whom he knew when the latter was a foreman in the Denver & Rio Grande railroad shops.

Room Mothers Report Upon 'Busy Saturday'

Despite the weather Friday afternoon a very live meeting of the Columbus Avenue Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. C. H. Thompson is president, was held at the school yesterday. Reports of the room mothers were given regarding the success of the "busy Saturday" last week, the children of the school turning in $63 which they had earned by their own efforts on that day and which, with the $25 voted by the board, more than paid for the stereopticon view machine which has been purchased for the school. After the business session the members present enjoyed viewing the stereopticon pictures.

This edition of The Glendale Evening News contains twenty-four pages.

It is made up of two sections. The first section, printed on white paper, contains eight pages. The second section, containing sixteen pages and devoted to Own Your Own Home Week, is printed on pink paper.

There is much of interest in the twenty-four pages, both in the news and advertising columns.

When you have finished with this edition, why not mail it to some friend in the east?

The Glendale Evening News has a limited number of today's issue for sale at the office.

Tuesday Club's Drama Section Is Entertained by Mrs. L. G. Sherman

Mrs. L. G. Sherman of 316 West Lexington Drive, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Alma Gibbs, was hostess yesterday afternoon to the members of the drama section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, of which Mrs. R. E. Chase is curator. An excellent review of the play "Declasse" was given by Mrs. Harry Lockwood. Mrs. Chase read "Mary Rose" by J. M. Barrie and also read a pantomime, "The Shepherd in the Distance," which is to be produced soon by the members of the section.

Miss Jane Fearnley, an actress with the "Irene" company, which is playing in Los Angeles, and who is the house guest of Mrs. R. E. Chase, a former friend in New York City, was the guest at the section meeting yesterday. Members present included Mrs. Malvern Barker, Mrs. E. A. Bode, Mrs. Bert Cline, Mrs. Max Green, Mrs. J. C. Dunn, Mrs. A. P. Findlay, Mrs. A. M. Hunt, Mrs. Harry Lockwood, Mrs. W. F. Nash, Jr., Mrs. C. J. Newcomb, Mrs. A. D. Pearce, Mrs. Charles A. Parker, Mrs. Winchell, Mrs. R. K. Snow, Mrs. W. H. Verity, Mrs. Jesse Josephs, Mrs. L. N. Hagood, Mrs. Childers, Mrs. R. E. Chase and the hostesses, Mrs. Sherman and Mrs. Gbibs.

The members of the section have been busy rehearsing the three one-act plays which will be given at the Los Angeles District Federation of Women's Clubs' convention at Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler's Anniversary Observed

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schuyler of 330 Ivy street were entertained at a dinner party last night at the home of Mrs. Ray A. J. Phillips, 363 Ivy street, in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The St. Patrick's colors and motifs were used in decoration and also in the menu, which indicated an old-fashioned Irish stew, and also in ice cream and cake.

Peter Hanson acted as toastmaster for the occasion. Dr. J. W. Sooy, formerly of Wayland, Michigan, which was also the former home of the Schuylers, responded to a call for a toast by giving reminiscences of the early childhood of both Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler and of their young days when they were courting. William McMillan and W. E. Sawyer each told Irish stories. Mr. Hanson also gave a very interesting toast in rhyme, an original verse. Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler were presented with a silver sandwich tray. The evening was then given over to various games.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Schuyler, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Sooy, Mrs. A. R. Sooy, Mrs. Katherine Sooy, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. William McMillan, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Spaulding, Mrs. M. J. Miner, Mrs. Alma Gibbs, Mrs. S. R. Frazee, Ernest Schuyler, Edith Schuyler, Lois Schuyler, Hoyt Schuyler, Marjorie Phillips, Mary Joe Phillips, Esther Phillips, and the hostess.

Glendale C. E. Hosts To Invade Hollywood

Glendale Christian Endeavorers are looking forward to a big time at Hollywood tonight, tomorrow and Sunday, according to Miss Carol Duncan, president of the Glendale union.

"Many local young people will stay through the affair, being entertained in the homes of hospitable Hollywood people," said Miss Duncan. "Others will go to the meetings whenever possible. Saturday night will be 'joy night' and the Glendale district will be well represented. All delegates from here will take part in a jolly song and stunt planned by Howard L. Brown."

Spanish War Veterans to Hold Installation

More than 100 veterans of the Spanish-American war are expected to be present at the American Legion hall on East Broadway on next Wednesday night, when the recently organized Glendale Camp of the United Spanish War Veterans will conduct their installation ceremonies. This announcement was made at last night's meeting of the American Legion post by Dr. William C. Mabry, who is a member of both organizations.

LOCAL LEGION PLANS BIG SESSION FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Get Together Event to Be One of Largest Gatherings Yet Held by Glendale Post

The regular weekly business and social meeting of the Glendale post of the American Legion was held last night at the post hall on East Broadway and was attended by an enthusiastic group of members and visitors.

The meeting was conducted by the regular officers, with the exception of the stations of first and second vice-commander, which were filled by Gerald Delgardo and Owen C. Emery, respectively.

A large part of the gathering was spent in the making of arrangements for the staging of the post's first annual "get-together" meeting, which is scheduled to take place at the Legion hall on next Friday night.

Plans are under way for the largest gathering of its kind ever held by the organization and it is expected that several hundred men will be present. The object of the affair, according to Commander James F. McBrvde, will be that of giving all local ex-service men who are not Legionnaires a chance to become acquainted with the post and its members.

The invitation is extended to any veteran of the late war who is living in the San Fernando valley.

Frank Weller in Charge

The program for the novel event, which is in charge of Frank C. Weiler, will consist of a talk by Supervisor Henry Wright, a number of musical selections headed by Harry Girard and several other special features. A "regular feed" is on the list.

Following a report by Gordon A. Clayton, who was in charge of selling the tickets for the moving picture, "I Accuse," in which it was stated that more than $100 had been added to the post's building fund from the three nights' receipts, a special vote of thanks and appreciation was drafted to be sent to William A. Howe, manager of the Glendale Theatre. The proposition, which netted the Legionnaires half of all the proceeds from tickets sold by the members, was voluntarily made to the post.

A report was made of the regular Legion dance which was held last Saturday, stating that it was the most successful, both socially and financially, that has ever been staged by the post. The next ball will be held on Saturday evening, April 1.

Radio Night Planned

Plans for the Legion's first local "radio night," which is scheduled to be held on the regular meeting night, April 7, were partially announced at last night's session.

The principal speaker for that evening was announced as being Harry F. Atwood, who is a representative of the Better American Federation. Most of the evening will be spent in listening to musical concerts and entertainments, which will be staged in Los Angeles and other Pacific coast cities.

The program will be conducted to the local hall via wireless telephone, which will be in charge of Chester Weaver, a member of the post.

Wilma Kulp Hostess to Class Members

Some years ago, Wilma Kulp, of the A-8-I class, Intermediate school, had her first birthday, and yesterday, St. Patrick's day, she celebrated again by furnishing a treat of cake and lemonade to the members of her class at school, of which Miss Vera Sinclair is the teacher. At the close of the lunch hour the class met in its own room, and from there marched to the dining-room of the domestic science hall, where Miss Sinclair, with Wilma and her chosen assistants, served the refreshments.

Miss Sinclair had very graciously added as her part of the treat, candies all wrapped in papers of Irish green. The session was brief, but joyful, and following it all marched back to their class room to take up again their day's work.

Fred Deal of Phone Fame to Give Talk

Fred Deal, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company, will be the speaker before the Glendale Merchants' Credit association at the weekly noonday luncheon Monday, Secretary Frank H. Pilling announces. Mr. Deal has had a wide variety of experience in handling collections.

HUSBANDS ENTERTAINED

The members of the West Glendale Study Club entertained their husbands at a St. Patrick's party given last night at the home of the president, Mrs. Harry McDade, 520 Fairmont street. Games and dancing provided diversion for the evening, after which an elaborate supper was served. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. M. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Low, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Young, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parker, Mrs. Radke, Mrs. Wainright, Merle Wainright and the hostess.

New Chief of Police Returns to Glendale; He Has Good Reason

COL. JOHN D. FRASER
Appointed Police Chief of Glendale last Wednesday night.

In returning to Glendale as chief of police, Colonel John D. Fraser says he is sincerely glad. And there is reason to his happy thought.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser left the east, at the close of the world war, to reside peacefully in the golden west. They located in Glendale and three days after getting nicely settled at 303 North Central avenue, they returned from a motor ride to find their house ransacked and robbed.

"My wife could not get over the fright and the stories other people told of robberies caused us to move into the city, but I am coming back to get even with the thieves. It's a long trail that has no turning, you know," said the new chief as he went on to tell plans for bringing the department to the highest possible state of efficiency.

The colonel's experience has been such as to give him an insight into business efficiency as well as the command of men and enforcement of civil law, a rare combination which the city is fortunate in obtaining at this time, the city council agrees.

Mrs. Ruby Smart New W.C.T.U. Head

Approximately fifty members of local society of the Women's Christian Temperance Union were presnet on Friday at the annual "all day" business meeting of the organization, which was held at the home of Mrs. Samuel Dick of 309 North Louise street. All of the ladies "brought their lunches" and enjoyed the noonday meal together.

The morning session was confined principally to the annual reports of the various committees on the activities of the organization during the past year, while the "after lunch" meeting consisted principally of the annual election of officers. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows: Mrs. Ruby Smart, president; Mrs. G. A. Dockeray, vice president; Mrs. R. W. Mottern, recording secretary; Mrs. L. Bacon, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sara E. Thomas, treasurer.

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett Is Hostess at Luncheon

Mrs. H. E. Bartlett of 417 West Myrtle street entertained with a St. Patrick's luncheon party at her home Thursday in honor of her cousin, Mrs. E. J. Roberts of 920 East Harvard street, who recently moved here from Chicago. The guests included Mrs. E. J. Roberts, Mrs. W. W. McElroy, Mrs. Lillian Dow, Mrs. Robert Philp, Mrs. Emma Hunt, Miss Myra Bartlett, Mrs. C. F. Parker and the hostess, Mrs. Bartlett. Stocks and freesias were used as decoration. The St. Patrick motifs and color scheme of green were carried out in the menu and table decorations.

World War Veterans' Compensation Is Late

Because President Harding has not signed the general deficiency bill to cover governmental expenditures up to June 1, there are scores of former service men, veterans of the World War, who are broke in Glendale today. The checks for these hospitalled, vocational training men have not arrived. About $350,000 is spent monthly by the government in this district.

UPTONS VISITING NIECE

Mr. and Mrs. Irving H. Upton of Boston, Mass., are visiting at the home of their niece, Mrs. Henry M. Macdonald, 445 West Harvard street. Mrs. Upton was the recent president of the Boston College Club. Mr. Upton is an organist and professor in the "Hub" city.

OFFICER KEARNS IN CRASH

Motorcycle Officer A. Kearns narrowly escaped death this morning while turning a corner on Brand boulevard. He sideswiped a heavy machine, denting its fender, and it was necessary to send the cycle to the shop.

CHURCH MUST TAKE DECIDED STANDS, SPEAKER SAYS

Dr. Byron H. Wilson Says Issues on Modern Movements Cannot Be Dodged

Dr. Byron H. Wilson of Pasadena, superintendent of the Methodist churches of the Los Angeles district, was the principal speaker last night in the dining room of the First Methodist church at the monthly Brotherhood supper.

Senator F. L. Palmer of Minneapolis, member of the Minnesota state legislature, who is residing temporarily at 471 West Harvard strett, also spoke briefly. He asserted that he did not see how the First Methodist church of Glendale could fail to be an alert and progressive institution when so many of its members had gotten valuable church experience before coming west.

Before elected, Mr. Palmer was a Sunday school superintendent. He said that he had been elected without the bribery of a single cigar or drink and that other church members should not be afraid of being able to do likewise. Mr. Palmer stated that he was intensely pleased at having been able to cast his ballot with the dry forces during his term of office.

Know Where They Stand

High tribute to Dr. Wilson was paid by Dr. C. M. Crist, who said that he deserved the whole hearted praise and support of the entire church. In turn, Dr. Wilson said that, if he had his choice of a church, he would select the one in charge of Rev. Crist because he represented his ideal of a minister.

"We can get along nowadays with no less than the red blood," asserted Dr. Wilson. "Men who stand for broad ideals and know where they stand are wanted in the church."

"Play the Game Through" was the topic of Dr. Wilson. He said:

"You realize with me that there are a great many 'starters' in the world and not so many 'finishers.' We have a great many people who are willing to begin a great work who fall by the wayside and do not complete it.

"It is not always the fellow who has the easy time and the fine start

Junior Orchestra Is Started for Central

A junior orchestra has been organized under the direction of Mrs. Etta Rae Kent at the Central avenue school that is proving quite a surprise to the parents and visitors. The members are deeply interested and are rehearsing faithfully every Wednesday from 2:30 to 4:10 o'clock and will be in splendid practice in time for the festival that is planned for the school to be held early in May, at which the orchestra will be one of the best features.

Mildred Praeger, Cornelia Hollingsworth, Martha Jones and Jennie Sherland, are all proving quite capable of presiding at the piano: Mary Ann Fleming, Mary Pomeroy and Elfrida Tronowsky make a splendid trio with their violins. Nancy and Dorothy Kilgore contribute to the harmony with the castanets. George Hollister assists with a jazz horn and Rondon Herwig will soon appear at rehearsal with his bugle.

These members are taken from the sixth grade and under, and the orchestra will become a permanent organization of the Central avenue school. The pupils in this schooi have shown unusual interest in the music memory contest and spend many of their recess moments and all the leisure time they are allowed at noon in the auditorium working faithfully with the victrola trying to memorize the different names of music and composers. One thing that is interesting to the teachers is the large number of small pupils that have mastered the spelling of the very difficult names.

M. B. Towman States Valley Route Is Good

M. B. Towman, manager of the local branch at 248 South Brand boulevard of the Automobile Club of Southern California, has just returned from a few days' vacation in San Francisco. He found the valley route in very good condition, although the state highway is being repaired at several points. He mentioned a seven-mile detour at Merced and a detour over paved roads between Selma and Kingsbury. Mr. Towman says the boulevard is being widened at a great many places and that repairs are particularly noticeable between the foot of the mountains and Bakersfield.

C. L. PECKHAM IS GUEST

Charles L. Peckham of 615 North Central avenue was the guest of honor last night at a surprise party given in celebration of his birthday anniversary by a group of more than fifty friends. Decorations were in green and everything was in keeping with St. Patrick's day. The guests enjoyed playing "500," and at a late hour supper was served.

TWILIGHT RECITAL PROGRAM IS BEST YET PRESENTED

Harry Girard Says Numbers Certain to Satisfy All Patrons Sunday

The third twilight recital will commence at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Glendale theatre.

"Undoubtedly this will be the best program that we have ever given," stated Harry Girard. "It is an exceptionally strong program. A large part of it will be composed of selections from Gounod's "Gallia" and "The Crucifixion" by Sir John Staines."

Meanwhile, the pipe organ for the payment of which these recitals are given, is being installed in the Holy Family church and will be ready for use during Sunday services on March 26.

The fourth and last recital of the series will take place Easter Sunday, April 16, when the united artists of the entire series will appear. Harry Girard is of the opinion that some program may be expected.

The vocalists to appear at tomorrow's recital are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girard, Mr. and Mrs. Henri LaBonte and Carl Gantvoort.

Program Is Varied

"The Last Hope," a duet for piano and organ, by L. M. Gottschalk, will be played by Paul Carson and Harry Girard.

"Is Is Enough," the baritone aria from the Oratorio "Elijah," will be sung by Mr. Gantvoort.

Henri LaBonte will sing "The Cross" by Harriet Ware and Madam LaBonte will sing "Lead Kindly Light," by Ferris Tozer.

Two duets for tenor and baritone will be sung by Mr. Bonte and Mr. Girard, one "So Thou Liftest Thy Divine Petition" from "The Crucifixion" by Sir John Staines, and the other, "The Crucifix," by Jules Fauer.

A quartet consisting of Mr. and Mrs. LaBonte and Mr. and Mrs. Girard will sing "God So Loved the World," by Sir John Staines.

The closing number of the program will be Charles Gounoud's "Gallia" sung by Mrs. Harry Girard, supported by a vested choir of about thirty voices.

Members of Choir

Among the members of this choir are the following: Miss Viola Yorba, Miss Marie Mulvahill, Miss Dorothy Vogel, Miss Helen Gerl, Miss J. L. Miss Helen Koverman, Miss Vivian Weismiller, Miss Violet Brehme, Hobbs, Mrs. Madge Schalk-Hottage, Miss Leora Buechler, Mrs. George Duffey, Mrs. Frank Patch, Miss Henrietta Meck, Miss Mildred McCoubrey, Miss Geraldine Aust, Miss Henrietta Folz, Frank Fangman, Mike Duggan, Fred Albright, George Lyons, Robert Godar, Mr. Radigan, and Dave Jourgensen, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brasher, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Radigan.

Gilhuleys	9	6	.600
Wards	8	7	.540
Grenfels	7	8	.460
Clarks	6	9	.400
Apffels	6	9	.400

By drawing a "bye" in the regular bowling schedule Friday the Fortunato squad, which has been leading the six clubs in the Class A division of the local Elks' Scratch Bowling league, was forced to "stand by" and see themselves placed on an even footing with the fast climbing Gilhuleys. The latter named team, by rolling up three conservatively consistent scores, came back and won the last two games from the wavering Apffels and thereby attained first place for the first time of the season.

The Wards, who are captained by Bert Ward, secretary and general manager of the league, were the other victors on the evening's program, defeating the Clarks, 2 to 1, in a rather lopsided battle. They averaged more than 500 pins per game, the total for the three contests being 1519.

Positions Not Changed

Both the Fortunatos and the Grenfels were inactive Friday, their match having been played several weeks ago. Their relative positions in the percentage columns were not altered, the former still holding onto the top shelf (with the Gilhuleys) and the latter remaining at the top in the second division.

Next to the Wards in total number of pins for the three games came the Gilhuleys, who trailed them but five points to the rear with 1514, the Clarks with 1485 and the Apffels last with 1478.

Of the six 500 games bowled the Clarks led the entire field by 541 in their last tussle with the Wards. This is an average of more than 180 for each individual player on the team and is one of the highest marks ever hung up by a three-man squad at the local alleys. The high games made by each of the other teams were: Wards, 526; Apffels, 520; Gilhuleys, 520.

Bert Ward was easily the individual star of the evening's program, his mark of 602 for the three games giving him an average score of more than 200. His high game was 205. High games for the other team members were as follows: Clarks, Brown, 224; Gilhuleys, Viohl, 192; Apffels, Card, 207.

The box scores:

Livingston Thom Is Owner of Studebaker

Livingston Thom, aged 16, a prominent member of the Glendale Hi-Y club and otherwise widely known because of the family fruit trees in the Thom orchard ranch, now is the proud possessor of a Studebaker light six presented him by his father, Cameron DeHart Thom.

The machine has disc wheels, is fully insured, and will be used for summer camping trips by its youthful owner. He has the privilege of driving down to the service station and getting gasoline and charging it to his father, the latter says. That makes it real easy.

"It also makes the family car safe if I want to sneak out and take a ride," says "Cam," which really explains the purchase. He didn't want to "break in" a new car, so he compromised with son Livingston.

Studebaker
Merit Wins

Studebaker is a specialist. Builds nothing but Sixes. Its efforts are not scattered. Its entire resources, unsurpassed in the automobile industry, are devoted to a single, fixed purpose:

—to build well, by using the finest materials, and most skillful workmanship and to sell at the lowest prices possible.

How well Studebaker has succeeded is best answered by the records. In the calendar year of 1921, Studebaker produced and sold more six cylinder cars than any other manufacturer in the world.

From present indications the sales record of Studebaker cars in 1922 will greatly exceed 1921. Reports from Studebaker dealers from all parts of the country show a big increase in sales this year over the same period of 1921. Shipments of cars from the Studebaker factories this year are 106 per cent more (at the time this ad was written) than for the same period of 1921.

That's proof that merit wins. Buyers will not be fooled by wild misrepresentations. Motor cars are now being bought on the basis of merit.

The intrinsic value of today's Studebaker cars surpasses pre-war values. Never before have we given so much positive value for the money.

Instead of skimping the real value in order to reduce the cost, low prices of Studebaker cars are due to strict economy, skillful purchase of materials, a high degree of plant efficiency and well-known, continuous large volume.

Each Studebaker model is hundreds of dollars lower in price than cars of comparable quality.

Business-Getting Power of The Evening News

Exclusively a Glendale Paper

The Glendale Evening News is printed and circulated on its own merits. It has stood alone as a local daily newspaper for nine years and is showing a steady growth, both in circulation and advertising patronage. Advertisers value it because it is not a supplement or insert to any other paper and because it is exclusively a Glendale paper.

Best Publicity Medium in Glendale

The business organization of The Evening News is first, last and all the time a Glendale institution, and as such guarantees advertisers the best publicity medium available in the Glendale territory.

3,000 Paid-in-Advance Subscribers

Its circulation of 3,000 represents paid-in-advance subscribers who voluntarily order the paper because of its merits, and not on account of procuring an outside publication of which the local paper is merely a supplement to an organ, whose camouflaged purposes, when carried out, will be destructive to the best interests of Glendale merchants.

Our circulation books are open to your inspection. Our merchandising service is at your command.

Deaths and Funerals

WILLIAM HENRY HYATT

The death of William Henry Hyatt at his home at 552 West Broadway on Friday, March 17, 1922, at the age of 73 years, marked the passing of one of the pioneers of Glendale and vicinity.

Mr. Hyatt had been a resident of this city for over nineteen years, having lived all of that time at the same place, which, when he first moved here, was far from his neighbors, but is now in one of the fast growing sections of the city.

Mr. Hyatt was a passenger on the car making the first trip to Glendale on the electric line nineteen years ago, when that road was completed. He was very proud of the remarkable growth of Glendale, was an ardent booster for this city and a firm believer in its future possibilities, and took much pleasure in informing his friends and acquaintances in other cities of the desirability of residing here.

Mr. Hyatt was born in Ohio, seventy-three years ago. Before coming to Glendale he resided in Spokane, Washington, where he was engaged in the contracting business. He helped restore Spokane after the great fire which burned it to the ground in 1889. Mr. Hyatt retired just before moving to Glendale.

A widow, Mrs. Laura B. Hyatt, one son, David L. Hyatt of Spokane, Washington, two daughters, Mrs. M. H. Vance of Woodlands, Calif., and Mrs. C. H. Anderson of San Francisco, survive Mr. Hyatt, as well as nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Just a short time ago Mrs. Anderson paid her father a visit, which he greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Vance was called here several days ago by the serious illness of her father.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon, March 19, at 3 o'clock at the parlors of the Jewel City Undertaking company. The body will later be taken to St. Helena, Calif., for interment in the family cemetery plot.

MRS. MABEL CRAIG

Mrs. Mabel Craig, daughter of W. A. Hough of 303 North Maryland avenue, and niece of Mrs. R. S. Todd of 416 North Maryland avenue, and who until four years ago had been a resident for many years in Glendale, passed away last night, March 17, 1922, at the age of 30 years, in Exeter, Calif. The body will be brought to Glendale for burial. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made.

Mrs. Craig has many friends in this city who will be shocked to learn of her death, which was caused by intestinal influenza. She is survived by her husband, Glenn Craig of Exeter, a daughter, Pauline, and son, Glenn Craig, Jr., and a sister, Mrs. Lewis Coole, of Exeter. Jewel City Undertaking company in charge.

BURGLAR ATTACK FATAL

LONDON, March 18.—Lady White, widow of Sir Edward White, late chairman of the London county council, died as the result of a burglar attack. Attaches of a hotel in which Lady White was residing found her in an unconscious state Tuesday morning with a portion of her skull crushed in. She regained consciousness for a few moments, and told how a burglar had entered her room through a window, had attacked her with an instrument—evidently a blackjack.

SOCIAL HOUR IS PLANNED

A social hour will be enjoyed at the Pacific Avenue Methodist church between 5:30 and 6:30 o'clock tomorrow night. Mr. and Mrs. George H. Moore of 221 West Elk ave., will be host and hostess. It is their desire that the young people of the neighborhood should attend and become acquainted. Refreshments will be served. "Brotherly Love" is the topic of Rev. Harley G. Preston's evening sermon.

W. B. KIRK ASSERTS Y. M. C. A. MEETING OF IMPORTANCE

Says Calling Conference Here On March 25 and 26 to Be Event of Interest

W. B. Kirk of 504 East Broadway, who has been a member of the board of directors of the local Y. M. C. A. since its organization and has been actively engaged in that work until about a month ago, when, owing to the illness of Mrs. Kirk, he was unable to continue, has written the following statement regarding the Southern California Christian Calling Conference to be held in Glendale March 25 and 26:

"Of all the gatherings and meetings of various kinds to be held in Glendale this season, none is more important than that of the Christian Calling Conference to be held Saturday night, March 25, and Sunday, March 26. It is surely a compliment to the Y. M. C. A. of this city that such a gathering is to take place under its auspices.

"Little trouble and expense on our part will entail and the result will without any doubt be far reaching. What is the biggest asset in our city and section? Is it our splendid business houses and homes? Is it not, rather, our citizenship and the characters in the making of our young lives?

Importance of Training

"The importance, then, of training these boys and girls to be clean and upright cannot be overestimated when the future of our fair southland is considered. The leadership and all the moral and uplifting work necessary to be done in order to keep our citizenship what we desire it to be is a matter of deepest concern.

"Everybody who shows a capacity and desires to devote his life's calling to the betterment of his fellows and of the world in whatever field should receive all the help, advice and encouragement possible. It is to this end that the Southern California Christian Calling Conference is called. This is an annual affair, being held this year in Glendale."

CITY TAKES LARGE PART IN PROGRAM OF MUSIC WEEK

First Event Will Be Given at First Methodist Church by Choir From Ontario

Los Angeles County Music Federation week begins today and continues until after March 25, the objects being twofold—to acquaint people of the work of the music federation and also to enroll as many non-federated organizations as possible.

Glendale at the present time has seven federated music clubs, Glendale Music Club, Juvenile Auxiliary, Junior Auxiliary, Music Section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club, Madrigal Club, Glendale High School orchestra, and Glendale High School Girls' Glee Club.

On Sunday the first program of the week will be given at the First Methodist church by the Federated Choir of Ontario, which numbers fifty members and is under the management of Dean Samuel Blakslee, director. His son, Dean Samuel Blakslee, Jr., is the organist and will also give several solos. He is the head of the music department of the Junior College of Ontario. A general invitation has been extended to the public to attend this concert.

Other Programs Planned

Other programs already planned for Los Angeles County Music Federation week include the "federation night" concert to be given at the regular meeting of the Glendale Music Club at the high school auditorium Thursday night, March 23, at which time a program will be given by all of the federated music clubs of Glendale. This concert will be open to the public. As special guests for that night the officers and presidents of the federated music clubs of the country have been invited. The program will be announced in detail later.

On Friday night, March 24, the Cadman trio, which includes Miss Alma Geiger of Glendale, Constance Balfour and Mrs. W. R. Garrett, will give the "Melodrama of Hiawatha," the tribal melodies of which were set to music by Charles Wakefield Cadman, director of education of the state federation of music clubs, at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium under the auspices of the Business and Professional Women's Club, of which Mrs. M. Biggs is president.

Contest Boosts Glendale

The week will be closed with a grand finale — the try-outs of the music memory contest. This contest has been another means of boosting Glendale. Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, president of the Glendale Music Club and chairman of the extension department of the state federation and which is in charge of the launching of the "County Federation Music Week" campaigns throughout the state, has received a letter from the National Association to Promote Music, whose headquarters are in New York City, asking information regarding same.

Organizations planning special programs for this week have been asked to communicate with Frances Goldwater, 811 Majestic theater building, in order that a record may be kept of same for report at the state federation meeting in April.

"WHY I SEND MY WASH TO THE LAUNDRY"

Mrs. H——, a housekeeper of 25 years' experience, gives six reasons why she prefers to send her family wash to the laundry:

1 The route collector comes at approximately the same time on the same day of the week.
2 My clothes are returned on the same day each week.
3 When I open my bundle I can check off the articles by the laundry's list, and then check their list against my original.
4 My laundry makes good promptly on lost articles.
5 My clothes are returned cleaned, sweet-smelling, well-ironed and carefully folded.
6 The laundry's charge for the finished service is within my reach to meet regularly, and is fair and adequate. I pay only for the amount of clothes sent out, and am not charged for any supplies used or for extra service of any kind.

Demand for Oakland Car Reported Good

Green & McClellan, Glendale Oakland dealers with sales and service at 115 West Harvard street, are more than optimistic with the start made by the spring season.

They report that deliveries have been made the past week on two Oakland touring models and two roadsters, while they have taken orders for a coupe and another roadster.

"Business has started out better this spring than ever before in the history of my connection with the automobile game," said Max L. Green, who is the Glendale vice-president of the Auto Trades association.

Dr. William C. Mabry is taking offices in the Ralph's building at 201-A West Broadway with Dr. O. A. Dietrich. On account of his other work the former will specialize on internal medicine and diagnosis, only.

Prest-O-Lite Station Station Opens Monday

A Prest-O-Lite battery and service station will be opened Monday at 106 West Harvard street by E. B. Ingle and Miles Stone.

"The Prest-O-Lite battery is the best battery on the market," stated Mr. Ingle. "The Prest-O-Lite Battery Company of Indianapolis is the second largest manufacturer of automobile batteries in the United States. The price is a lot cheaper than other standard makes of battery and the quality is not inferior. We believe in advertising and we expect a big business to start right off.

"We will not only maintain a battery service station but will do general automotive electrical work also. Ray Blodgett, who will take care of this branch of the work for us, is one of the best automobile electricians in Los Angeles.

"We will welcome repair work upon all makes of batteries and give each one Prest-O-Lite care and attention."

Mr. Ingle was formerly in business in El Centro, Imperial Valley. He is now residing temporarily in Los Angeles but hopes to be able to locate in Glendale before long. Mr. Stone has been in the building business in Pasadena.

Broadway P.-T. A. in Annual Bazaar, Sale

At the regular meeting of the Broadway Parent-Teacher Association at the school Friday the annual bazaar and food sale of that organization was held and proved to be a decided success regardless of the inclement weather. Those in charge of the various booths were as follows:

Salad booth, Mrs. M. L. Kane; sandwich booth, Mrs. Marie Hunt, Mrs. Rhoades and Mrs. Baron; cooked food booth, Mrs. A. J. Van Wie and Mrs. Lindrum; Eskimo pie booth; Mrs. Walter Packard and Mrs. King; fancy work booth, Mrs. Richard Martinez and Mrs. R. A. Van Osdol. Although the reports from the sale of the various foods and fancy work have not all been turned in, it is certain that a substantial amount will be added to the treasury of this organization.

Preceding the bazaar a luncheon was served at noon to the school children.

In the afternoon a short business session was held, in charge of the president, Mrs. C. A. Bowlus, and the following delightful program enjoyed; Violin solo, Miss Evangeline Quackenbush; dance, by little Eleanore Marek; vocal solo by Mrs. Gibbons; piano solo by Jack Miller; address on "Library service," by Mrs. J. C. Danford; talk on "Cooperation," by Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools; piano solos, "Arabesque" (Debussey) and "Mountain Stream" (Wilson Smith), by Miss Nettie B. Campbell.

Program Completed For Scout Banquet Next Monday Night

CHARLES N. MILLER
Regional scout executive, who will speak at the Scout leaders' banquet to be held Monday night.

All arrangements have been completed for the Scout leaders' banquet in the dining room of the Citizens' building, Monday night, at 6:30 o'clock, according to Scout Executive H. F. Benner, who has announced that Charles N. Miller, regional scout executive, will be the speaker of the evening.

"Mr. Miller will arrive Monday morning from an extended trip on behalf of scouting throughout California, Nevada, Utah and Arizona," remarked Mr. Benner. "Without doubt he will have a great deal to say of interest to the local scout leaders.

"The banquet is being given by the officers and members of the Verdugo Hills District Council to the men who are serving as troop committeemen, scoutmasters or assistant scoutmasters. For the first time in the history of the local Boy Scout movement the volunteer adult leaders, who are directly in charge of the various Scout troops, will get together under one roof for a general discussion of their problems and to make plans for the future development of the movement throughout the Verdugo Hills district."

Good Program Prepared

A good program has been prepared and an excellent dinner has been promised by the Glen Inn staff.

Charles L. Chandler, president of the District Council, will make an address of welcome and Scout Commissioner Nathan Rigdon will speak briefly of the scout work. Charles B. Guthrie will be the toastmaster.

A troop leaders' round table will be organized.

Those who have been invited to attend the banquet from Glendale are Robert N. Taylor, Dr. C. G. Farrow, A. A. Barton, Charles L. Chandler, Robert M. Searle, Robert Danner, Ernest E. Harwood, Dr. Montague Cleeves, David C. Black, C. H. Crawford, Charles B. Guthrie, C. H. Temple, Nathan Rigdon and Harry C. Ells. The Burbank men are L. F. Collins, F. S. Moore and E. B. Thomas. Those from Eagle Rock are P. H. Ducker, W. H. Dorrance, R. L. McNitt, F. O. Rentsch, Fred Schnoor and Ray B. Sanders. From the Tujunga district have been invited Richard Smith, M. E. Hill, Leo L. Lang, B. J. Maxwell, Clorey Pinto and Robert Walker.

Vaudeville Program at T. D. & L. Today

One of the best vaudeville road show programs ever seen here is at the T. D. & L. theatre tonight. Headed by the Plantation Four—a quartette of real darkey harmonizers who are really exceptional. "What's the Great Idea?" a comedy sketch, is very amusing and well presented. Fox & Fox with their witty chatter get right into the audience. The Dancing Girls—the Romano Sisters, are also good. On the screen the feature picture is Anita Stewart in "The Invisible Fear," an excellent photodrama, well staged, and exciting to a degree. The two-reel special comedy, "Be Careful," which closes the bill, is a winner.

"The world's champion" starring Wallace Reid will be the attraction at the T. D. & L. theatre tomorrow, Sunday. It is filled with action from start to finish. Every screen and prize fight fan will enjoy this newest of Wally's features.

Glendale Nash Sales Moving to New Home

The Glendale Nash Sales Company is moving from North Brand boulevard to its specially prepared sales and service station and show rooms at 112 South Maryland avenue. There they will have one of the largest service floors in the city as well as spacious display space fronting on the street within a stone's throw of the city's business center.

E. B. Sutton announces that his agency has just received a new Nash sport model that is truly a spring style in the way of motor cars. It is enameled in maroon, fitted with Spanish leather upholstery and crowned with a Burbank top. The car will accommodate four passengers.

Needless to say, it is attracting a deal of attention although the Glendale Nash Sales is on the move today.

Spring Weather Aids Sale of Open Cars

"This beautiful sunshiny weather is a stimulant to the sale of open cars," remarked Edward S. Lawrence, assistant manager of the Ford agency, yesterday. "During the past three days we have sold five touring cars."

One of these cars was delivered to San Francisco and another to Los Angeles. Mrs. Daisy V. Sims, of 811 West Doran street, H. D. Ratcliff, 207 West Lexington drive, and A. F. Becker, 1101 East Wilson avenue, have now joined the army of Ford users.

L. A. Federation for Extension of Service

In a report filed this week with the Los Angeles board of public utilities, the Better Los Angeles Federation goes on record as favoring all extensions of transportation service within the metropolis to be made by municipally-owned bus lines such as the one now successfully operated into Griffith park. C. D. Gulick, Glendale's consulting expert, wonders why the report favoring the operation of motor busses has been given so little attention when it is exactly in line with what this city proposes to do.

S. P. Safety Gates Take Top From Auto

London bridge fell no faster than the Southern Pacific safety gates at the Brand-Glendale boulevard crossing yesterday morning as J. H. Stotesbury, manager of the Continental Casualty Insurance company of Los Angeles and a resident of 917 South New Hampshire street, was driving across the tracks. He was caught squarely between the barriers and fearing that a switch engine would run over him, he drove right through, literally ruining the top of his machine.

CHURCH MUST TAKE DECIDED STANDS, SPEAKER SAYS

who comes out in the end; it is the fellow who is willing to lay his cross upon his shoulder, though it be hard, and never turn back but trudge on and on over the valleys and dales, through the night and day time, always giving the best he has to carry the cross which may be given him. If there is anything which we need nowadays, it is that constancy.

Principles of Christ

"If the church loses the game that it is playing, it is going to be the saddest day we have ever known—but we are not going to lose because I believe we are going to win. Harding would tell you that the world needs a strong, great church standing for the principles of Christ.

"There is a mighty difference between 'paddling" in the world and going somewhere."

"The 'shalt-nots' may be all right but the great thing the world needs is not so much a negative goodness as a positive goodness. The world is not suffering so much from positive badness as it is from negative goodness. This is the day when we need the hero who is willing to stand for something that is great, and good, and noble and true.

"The time has come when the Methodist church has got to take just as strong a stand for equity in the modern movements of the day like labor and economics, as she has ever taken in the past on religious questions. If we try to dodge the issue, we must be held accountable in time to come. However, it must be equity and justice for both sides—both capital and labor.

Building Character

"God help us in America not to be so intent upon building fortunes as we are upon building character, for that is the foundation of America. The thing which America needs is a baptism of spiritual vision and spiritual life. The world needs God and, if it loses God, I want to tell you all it will lose its moorings."

Two hymns were sung by a vocal quartet consisting of Dr. P. O. Lucas, of 1243 South Brand boulevard; Dr. C. R. Lusby, 103 A North Brand boulevard; Paul Butterfield and Frank Butterfield, 431 Arden avenue.

Wesley Kuhnle Will Give Organ Recital

Wesley Kuhnle of 111 West Maple avenue, organist and pianist, will give an organ recital at Bovard auditorium, University of Southern California, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, Sunday, March 19, to which the public has been invited.

Mr. Kuhnle is at present the organist at St. James Episcopal church in Los Angeles and has a studio at his Glendale residence.

The program to be given by him will include the following numbers: "Chromatic Fantasia" (Thiele), "Triple Fugue in E Flat" (Bach), "Variations de Concert" (Bonnet), "Song of India" (Rimsky-Korsakoff), "Humoresque" (Dvorak), two popular songs, and "Toccata" (Dubois).

Mr. Kuhnle is a graduate of the University of Southern California College of Music and is a "Fellow" of the American Guild of Organists. He has held several important positions in Los Angeles and is well known as a concert pianist, organist and teacher.

Mr. Kuhnle studied organ composition and boy choir training with Ernest Douglast, organist, and pianoforte playing with Jaroslaw de Zielinski, pianist and pedagogue. At present he is studying with Richard Buhlig, world-famous pianist and master-pianist of the Philharmonic orchestra of Los Angeles.

Dr. James A. Belyea Here to Recuperate

Dr. James A. Belyea, formerly of Toledo, Ohio, has recently located at 920 South Central avenue. He specializes in nervous and mental diseases and internal medicine. Dr. Belyea was gassed while in France and states that he finds the climatic conditions of Glendale and vicinity most favorable to those recovering from the effects of being gassed. Dr. Belyea has established a large sanitarium in Toledo and is contemplating the founding of a similar one in Southern California.

ABLE TO LEAVE HOSPITAL

A. K. Dallerowe, who was injured in an automobile accident Sunday, is returning to his home in Flintridge on Friday from the Glendale Sanitarium Hospital.

Buick Party in Hurry To Reach Convention

Two-thirds of the way to San Francisco in nine hours is the record made this week by William A. Tanner's Buick.

Mr. Tanner, "Bob" Ford of 326 Fairview avenue, Buick salesman, and George B. Karr of 1152 North Louise street, manager of the Baldwin Shirt Factory at 1725 South Brand boulevard, left Glendale Wednesday morning at 3 o'clock for the Bay Cities to attend the Rotary convention.

A telegram received at the Buick agency, 237 South Brand boulevard, that afternoon, announced that the party had reached Merced before noon.

During his partner's absence, H. E. Hall of 319 North Maryland avenue is "keeping shop."

Scientists believe the time is coming when ships will be guided only by wireless.

Florence E. Mulvihill Visiting Mother Here

Miss Florence E. Mulvihill, a member of the late "Floradora Sextette," has arrived in Glendale from New York City to visit her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Mulvihill, of 134 North Louise street, and also her sister, Mrs. F. Lawler, of 1251 South Central avenue.

Miss Mulvihill will enter the movies for six weeks and then return to the eastern city to fill an engagement. She will sing at the Glendale theatre on Sunday, March 19, under the management of Harry Girard for the benefit of the third Twilight Subscription Recital for the benefit of the organ fund of the Holy Family church.

Wireless telegraphy is revolutionizing shipping; American ships will soon be in touch with New York all the way across the Atlantic till they reach the English shores.

A BEAUTIFUL HOME OF SERVICE

Within the walls which encircle this institution is gathered together men and women trained in the profession of tenderly and perfectly caring for the bodies of those just departed this life—and skilled in the art of making more precious the memory of those last rites.

Truly this well-appointed Funeral Home has been called a "Temple of Service."

Ever at your command when in need of one of our profession.

It offers true economy without sacrifice of refinement or inherent value—its price always being lowest — quality for quality.

EX-DRY AGENT IS ACCUSED

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—Charging that he had been beaten up by William Jordan, federal prohibition agent now under suspicion, Harry Brolaski, under conviction as the master mind of the "bootlegging ring," secured a warrant for the arrest of Jordan on a charge of assault and battery. Brolaski told the warrant clerk that he had been knocked down by Jordan while reading a paper at the corner of Ellis & Powell streets and severely beaten.

An unnamed man came to Brolaski's aid and is reported to have administered a beating to Jordan. Brolaski said Jordan accused him of "telling lies about him." Brolaski recently offered to expose the operations of the bootlegging game in California.

FORTUNE IN RESEMBLANCE

OMAHA, Neb., March 18. — Because he resembles a son of Mrs. Arthur L. Schoellkotf of New York, who died many years ago, the door of wealth has opened to Ralph Powell, Creighton law student and state and city tennis champion. Mrs. Schoellkotf, whose financial rating is $55,000,000 and who owns controlling interest in the Niagara Falls Power company today, telegraphed Powell asking him to join her on a trip to Europe and then return to make his home at her residence in New York City. Mrs. Schoellkotf is 70 years old.

Branch of 'Dragons' To Be Formed Here

Sabin Buck of 112 South Jackson street entertained with a very unique stag dinner recently Earl P. Hammond, president of the Dynamos club, Edward Smith, secretary, Joe Maier, director of music, and Gail Kennedy, flower chairman. A short business session was held and plans made for organizing a branch of the "Dragons," a young men's organization. Joe Maier was chosen temporary president.

De Kalb County, Ill., Folk to Hold Picnic

All present and former residents of DeKalb county, Illinois, have been invited to attend the ninth annual picnic reunion Saturday, March 25, 1922, in Sycamore Grove, Los Angeles. There will be election of officers and a brief program about 2 o'clock. Dr. Norman Bridge will give an address. Should it rain the picnic will be held the following Saturday. B. B. Smiley is president of the society. Coffee will be served at the park.

W. B. Kelly Returns From Galesburg, Ill., Where Mother Lives

W. B. Kelly of Kelly & Van Arsdol realty firm at 106 West Colorado street has returned from a two weeks' trip in the east, where he had been called by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Mary Kelly of Galesburg, Ill., after finding her improving. The train on which he was a passenger ran into a severe blizzard and was delayed sixteen hours. The weather in the east, he states, was cold and disagreeable, with plenty of snow and slush on the streets.

Mr. Kelly found that as soon as anyone registers from California they are subject to many questions regarding the business possibilities and climatic conditions. He states "the city of Glendale is well advertised as the fastest growing suburb adjacent to Los Angeles, and during the coming year, as soon as the excursions on the different railroads begin, there is going to be a great influx of tourists to southern California, and Glendale will get its share.

Business conditions throughout the east have been very dull during the winter, but everyone seems optimistic that this coming year is going to be a banner year in all trades.

Mr. Kelly says that in his absence he finds conditions in his office were very satisfactory, and that the number of sales being made now are equal to, if not better than, last year at this time.

Declares Appreciation Of Fire Department

Appreciation for the speed with which the members of Fire Department No. 1 responded to a fire alarm about 9:15 o'clock last Thursday night is expressed by Mrs. Sarah H. King of 137 South Cedar street.

"We appreciate very much the quickness with which the boys got here," said Mrs. King. "It didn't seem like it was three minutes until they were here. We had the fire out before they arrived, but it was nice of them to be so quick, for, if we hadn't been home, the house might have been destroyed."

Experience begets wisdom, but it is usually too late in the game to be of any value.

JOHN ROBERT WHITE MAKES REPLY TO GOV. STEPHENS

Says Executive's Statement Is Not Consistent With the True Circumstances

John Robert White, Jr., of Glendale, assemblyman from the sixty-first district, has answered Governor William D. Stephens. Here it is:

My Dear Governor—This will acknowledge receipt of your letter of March 13, in which you profess to reply to my request that you reconsider your decision not to call a special session of the legislature to consider reapportionment. Answering your communication, I wish first to say that I have a profound respect for the office you occupy and I regret, therefore, that (I am compelled to state) that the nature of your reply is so hypocritical, misleading and bombastic as to leave scant hope that southern California will receive justice at your hands.

My letter to you invited frank, fair and unselfish action on your part. You have responded with a campaign document weighted with fulsome promise of yourself and unwarranted abuse of myself.

I am astounded by the whole nature of your angry missive, but in particular by your remarkable statement that you "insisted and reinsisted" that the legislature enact constitutional reapportionmen—a statement that is wholly without foundation in fact, and a statement, considering your official silence on the question during the last legislative session, that does you no credit.

In view of our private conversations on the subject, in view of your urgent request at the last session that I should not embarrass you by forcing the question on the floor of the assembly, in view of my appeal to you that you address the legislature on reapportionment before adjournment—an appeal which you denied—and in view of your intimate knowledge of my earnest desire for a constitutional reapportionment, I cannot find words to express my disappointment, and a certain feeling of personal loss, over your lack of sincerity.

I regret that my insistence that southern California be given the additional representation to which this section is entitled has effected a breach in a friendship which I have highly valued.

Your reply ill becomes a governor of California, but as a vituperative political hodge-podge from a candidate for office it would be quite understandable.

Despite the fact that your statement almost in its entirety is not consistent with the true circumstances, there is a certain cleverness employed in evading a proper presentation of the real situation. True it is that the last legislature should have passed a constitutional reapportionment measure, but who better than yourself knows that it was the legislative program of your administration that postponed until an eleventh hour a consideration of reapportionment?"

From a careful review of all the official messages you addressed to the legislature I find that you discussed virtually all essential legislation with the striking exception of reapportionment, a measure most vital to southern California, and, notwithstanding your official and frequently remarked silence on the subject, you now make the astonishing assertion:

"During the last session I insisted and reinsisted that the members of the legislature do their sworn duty and enact a constitutional reapportionment measure. My insistence was in vain."

In making this statement, so incompatible with your official acts during the last session of the legislature, you invite the honest criticism which you so petulantly resent and so freely ascribe to those whom you choose to call "political knaves," or their dupes.

Now, governor, everyone knows, as you state in your letter, that it is the constitutional duty of the legislature, and not of the governor, to pass a reapportionment measure, but the legislature, having failed at the regular session to obtain reapportionment by reason of the heavy program of legislation fostered by your administration, cannot now act until called into extraordinary session by yourself.

You say that I know the present legislature will not give Los Angeles the reapportionment to which we are entitled. This I most assuredly do not know, but I do know that the leading nature of your telegram asking legislators to state their opinion as to the possibility of constitutional reapportionment at an extra session, distinctly called for a reply of "no" from those representing districts in which the population increase was not so great as in southern California.

Regardless of the replies you may have received expressing the personal views of legislators, it is not conceivable that with the legislature in session and with a message from the governor outlining the constitutional obligation of its members, any legislator would violate his fealty to the constitution.

In the hope that you will come, even tardily, to a proper realization that your past services, for which southern California gives you due credit, do not now relieve you of the obligation of making it possible to obtain impartial justice for this section, even at some possible political loss to yourself, I am

Yours truly,
JOHN ROBERT WHITE, JR.

Novelty Dance Act Heads Vaudeville at Glendale Today

Cole & Denahy, presenting a delightful novelty whirlwind dancing turn, will be included on the new vaudeville bill at the Glendale Theatre today. This is a particularly appealing offering and one that has been a big success all along the circuit. The O'Neill Brothers also have a versatile vaudeville novelty.

The Garrison Sisters offer novelty posing for which they carry special scenery.

Jere Sanford is styled "The Chore Boy" and his act is one of constant laughter. Sanford is an exceedingly clever comedian and he knows how to put over his material in great shape. Belmont's Hawaiian Jewels will contribute an Hawaiian singing and instrumental act that is a gem of its kind.

Laughs are in order for those who see "Headin' West," the Universal photoplay of the new west in which Hoot Gibson is starred.

Shades of Svengali!

Do you like mystery, and mesmerism, and hypnotism and—and gooty scenes? Then you will like the picture which comes to the Glendale Theatre Sunday, for it is taken from the famous stage play, "The Case of Becky," in which two hypnotists battle for the control of a young girl's mind. Constance Binney appears as "Becky."

GLENDALE'S GROWTH WELL TOLD BY BUILDING PERMIT FIGURES

Remarkable Records in Past Two Years and City Is Now Starting Out to Set Up New Mark in 1922

"Figures don't lie" is an ancient axiom which is heartily endorsed by Twentieth Century Glendale Boosters.

Nowhere is the growth of Glendale better illustrated than in its building records. These figures indicate a marvelous expansion which entitle this community to recognition as the fastest growing city in the United States. Best of all, this growth continues and there seems to be no indication of an abatement.

Over $249,891 worth of permits were issued during the first half of this month. This is more than half the valuation of the building done last March, which was $473,462, and almost as much as the figure $283,777 for the corresponding month of 1920.

New Record Being Made

The year's total so far amounts to $1,183,936, which is over one-half the total of $3,137,254 for the entire year 1920 and over twice the amount for the complete year 1919 which rang up $591,439 on prosperity's cash register.

Last year's building valuation of $5,099,201 showed an increase of $1,-

Population of City at Least 24,500, Is Indicated by Meters

The population of Glendale is at least 24,500, according to the estimate of J. F. McIntyre, agent for the public service department, based upon a previously tested basis of three and one-quarter persons for every electric light meter.

The first of this month showed 7542 of these meters in use in the city of Glendale.

"The figures at the public service department show a steady, permanent growth for Glendale," asserted Mr. McIntyre. "There has been nothing spasmodic about it. Of course, in war times there was not a whole lot of building, but since then there has been a good, healthy growth. The installations during the last two months show that Glendale is keeping pace with its previous record."

Installation of light meters during the past four years are as follows: 1918, 345; 1919, when Tropico was hitched to the city circuit, 1068; 1920, 1289; 1921, 1740.

Installation of water meters during the same period are as follows: 1918, when Tropico first tasted Glendale water, 1042; 1919, 576; 1920, 1086; 1921, 1342.

The number of light meters in use each March 1st for the past six years are as follows: 1917, 2582; 1918, 2889; 1919, 3719; 1920, 4394; 1921, 5614; 1922, 7542.

The number of water meters in use each March during the same period are as follows: 1917, 2414; 1918, 2522; 1919, 3312; 1920, 3916; 1921, 4948; 1922, 6344.

"We are setting a lot of light meters this year so far," said Mr. McIntyre. "A good many bungalow courts are being finished. This accounts for the number of light meters over the number of water meters.

"One nice feature about the expansion of Glendale is the fact that it hasn't been confined to any certain locality. While some districts have gone ahead faster than others, yet there has been a healthy growth in every part of town."

IS NOW A GOOD TIME TO BUILD?

The following statistics are self-explanatory, and experts believe they are conclusive evidence why one cannot expect lumber to go much if any lower than present prices.

The first table shows a gradual decrease each year in the amount of lumber manufactured, amounting to 25 per cent in ten years, due to the growing scarcity of standing timber:

1909	44,500,000,000 feet
1910	44,000,000,000 feet
1911	43,000,000,000 feet
1912	45,000,000,000 feet
1913	44,000,000,000 feet
1914	40,500,000,000 feet
1915	38,000,000,000 feet
1916	40,000,000,000 feet
1917	37,000,000,000 feet
1918	32,000,000,000 feet
1919 estimated	31,500,000,000 feet

The national shortage of homes is another factor. Government notices show the United States is one million homes short.

This table shows the increase in the number of families in the United States, and the per cent in deficiency for housing the people:

Year	Families	Dwellings	Deficiency
1890	12,690,152	11,483,318	9.6%
1900	16,187,715	14,430,145	10.9%
1910	20,255,555	17,895,845	11.7%
1915	22,786,499	19,853,517	12.8%
1916	23,292,887	20,263,051	13.1%
1917	23,799,275	20,672,051	13.2%
1918	24,872,051	20,829,039	16.3%
1919	25,319,443	20,900,000	17.5%

It is the candid opinion of experts that unless some unforeseen condition presents itself, the demand for lumber will be far in excess of the supply, and this for several years to come.

After you have given this information the consideration it deserves, take advantage of present conditions for building that new home.

LOCAL REALTY BOARD'S FAITH IN GLENDALE FIRM; GOOD CAUSE WHY

Experts Realize Advantages of Investments in Property Here; Why You Should Own Home

L. A. Hart, W. A. Horn and W. F. McPherson, publicity committee of the Glendale Realty Board, cooperating with The Glendale Evening News in the presentation of Own Your Own Home edition, have, as a committee, prepared the following article. It's interesting; it's important—and it's true. The story:

Why should I own my own home, especially in Glendale? Because it is the first duty a man owes to his family; because it's hard to find a suitable place to rent; or is it because I can sell it for a profit later on?

Well, these may be good reasons, so far as they go, but the real reasons for owning your own home are many, but may be summed up briefly as follows: A home is not a house with four walls and a roof on it, but a place of abode where happiness reigns supreme. The main step toward obtaining this happiness points toward being your own landlord, regardless of other objections to the contrary. There are people who will rent, owing to the fact that they are unsettled, and will possibly move to another location within a short time. Some of these renters are victims of circumstances, where the head of the family is traveling from state to state. Others are here for their vacations, but if your idea of renting is being unsettled, try owning your own home once and see what a difference it makes in the general atmosphere all around you. The time of year or the value of land should make no difference or cause you to delay in buying a home and settling down.

It is a well known fact that "a rolling stone gathers no moss," and that a substantial citizen's first thought should be toward his own home.

Comes Here In 1916

This recalls to mind an instance in 1916 of the Glendale citizen who came to Glendale from Los Angeles to rent a house for himself, his wife and two children. In those days, first class houses could be secured for a monthly rental of from twenty-five to thirty-five dollars per month. One house in particular that could be rented for $35 per month was the one located on the northwest corner of Orange and Colorado streets. This was considered higher than the average. His friends advised him to buy or attempt to build, for it would not pay, owing to the low rental values. It happened that he had not found what he wanted when it was suggested by a local realtor that he consult a builder who was, at that time, constructing a bungalow, and see if he could be persuaded to build a home to suit him. To make a long story short, this party paid a small payment down, assisted in drawing the plans, and inside of sixty days he moved into a new home and was making monthly payments on the balance due on his home. The house was finally paid for, and then sold for double the cost price. This family has moved into a larger home, which has also enhanced in value so that if it were sold now, a substantial profit could be derived from same. If they had found a suitable house to rent when they first came to Glendale, no doubt they would be renting to this day.

This only goes to show that prosperity is not spasmodic and can be made possible through thrifty investments. One point worth notice is the fact that in 1916 houses for rent in Glendale were not plentiful, not withstanding the fact that in Los Angeles there were hundreds of vacant houses to rent.

When to Buy Realty

The time to buy real estate in Southern California, especially Glendale, is now, today, not next year or some other future time. The time to own a home is today. The time to settle down and become a cog in the wheel of Glendale prosperity is today, and needless to say every citizen of Glendale is a spoke in the wheel and our future prosperity depends on their will. Some investors will make more and some less, but the principle, so to speak, is firmly established.

There is no doubt whatever about the future of this city. Its growth has been, and is, a nation-wide marvel. No city in the country has outstripped it in recent years, regardless of location. Being so close to Los

Four Minute Speakers to Aid Big Campagn

Good authorities and careful observers agree that the man who buys a home for his family is investing in the future of Glendale, the fastest growing city in America. The Realty Board, in co-operation with the state campaign, has appointed Dr. Jessie A. Russell as chairman in charge of the speakers for meetings and the theatres.

The following have consented to serve as "Four Minute" speakers during the coming week: V. M. Hollister, Mrs. M. L. Tight, C. E. Kimlin, Mrs. Maftison B. Jones, Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson, Richardson D. White, Frank A. Parish, James M. Rhoades, A. L. Ferguson, William H. Reeves, James F. McBryde and E. F. Sanders.

A committee meeting has been called for this afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce at 4:30 o'clock at which time the speakers will be assigned various public places.

When to Build? Now Is Time to Start It

It's now time to build. Those of you who have been deferring building, waiting for prices to fall can now make immediate arrangements to get the new building under construction and be assured that you are getting full value for your dollars.

CONSTRUCTION WORK ON PARISH HOUSE UNDER WAY

Holy Family Church Rectory To Be Completed in June, Estimate of Builders

Actual work upon the construction of the new Holy Family church rectory at 214 East Elk street is now under way and Rev. Father James S. O'Neill expects to be able to move into his new home about the middle of June. The cost is about $16,000.

The architecture of the parish house will match the church with the exception that instead of being plaster over brick the construction will be plaster over wood.

Between the church and the rectory will be a small garden. This will be enclosed on Elk street by a plastered brick wall about six feet high and thirty-four feet long in which will be placed a wrought iron gate.

The front entrance will be through a heavy paneled wooden door recessed two feet and reached over a small semi-circular cement stoop in the floor of which will be set an eight-pointed star. This entrance will be ornamented by an arrangement of cement blocks. Directly above the doorway will be a medallion bearing an impression of a cross.

For Church Business

Opening off a small vestibule are two adjoining offices about twelve feet square on the east side of the building. These will be used for the transaction of church business.

The northwest corner of the first floor will be occupied by the dining room, about nineteen by fourteen feet in size, which may also be entered through the vestibule. This is divided from the kitchen on the west side of the building by a small serving pantry which will contain work table, cupboards and cooler.

Next to the kitchen on the same side of the building will be a screen laundry porch. The maid's room will be located immediately south of this porch. Adjoining it will be a private bath. A service hall will connect the maid's room with the dining room.

The rear of the building will be occupied with a small fireproof garage with cement floor and concrete sides. This will have sliding doors which will provide an entrance from the south side of the building. A small alcove on its west side will provide space for a work bench.

Gives View of Garden

Both front and back stairs will connect the two floors of the rectory. The former will ascend immediately south of the two offices and entered from the main vestibule and the latter will ascend near the screen porch.

Along the east side of the building and commanding a view of the garden will be an arched cloister with a floor of checkered cement blocks and ceiling of plaster.

The northwest corner of the second floor will be devoted to a living room about eighteen feet square while the northeast corner will be a guest's bedroom. Separating this from a curate's bedroom on the west side of the building will be a tile bathroom. On the south side of this bedroom will be the pastor's study.

The study will occupy the southwest corner of the second floor, with a library on the east side which will provide space for two large book-

HOME OWNING HEARTS ARE HAPPIEST

By C. C. C. TATUM, President California Real Estate Association.

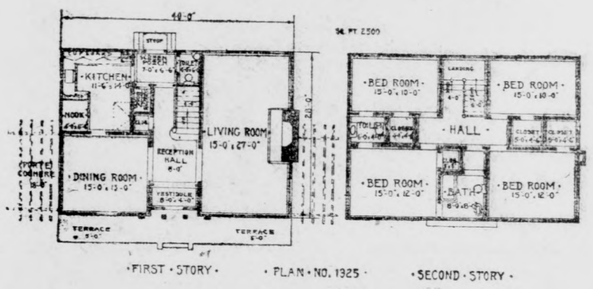
—Real estate is the safest, most permanent conservative investment in the world, and when improved will represent the greatest amount of returns in both money and happiness that you can make.

—Improved real estate is modern insurance, pays daily dividends in dollars, contentment and protection, and is sure to increase in value each year.

—Startling figures are daily called to your attention of unbelievable increases in real estate values, and it is going to continue to increase, with your deriving the benefits if you accept the opportunities real estate offers.

—Every father owes to those near and dear to him a home they can call their own, and broad-minded fathers and mothers are buying lots and lands for their children; they appreciate this is the best means for instilling thrift and saving, and at the same time assures them an independent future. If the heads of all families would only do this the future men and women of our country would be a home-loving, home-owning people.

—To be the owner of desirable ground on which to erect improvements is a privilege, an opportunity that you should accept for yourself and children. Real estate will never be cheaper. Today is the day to buy.



PLAN NO. 1925

—You cannot help but concede the attractiveness of this distinctive, two-story, colonial home. It reflects all that is desired in exterior appearance and the compactness and convenient arrangement of the rooms will surely make their appeal and command their adoption in the home you are contemplating building.

—It would be hard, indeed, to conceive of a more practical home building plan than the one we are featuring this week, and if you are desirous of securing additional information regarding plan, approximate cost, materials, etc., same will be gladly furnished by addressing "Home Building Editor," care this paper.

.... I AM REAL ESTATE ....

I am the basis of all wealth.

I am the foundation on which have been reared the civilizations of all the ages.

I am the pawn for which kings and emperors and legions without number have fought.

Centuries ago boundary lines were drawn across my surface, and I am portioned out among tribes and nations; property rights were established, society came into being, and chaos gave way to law and order.

I am the farm, the mine, and the forest.

You need but to tickle me with a hoe and I laugh with a harvest.

Plant a grain of wheat or corn, a seed of flax or cotton, on my broad bosom, and I reproduce a thousand-fold, furnishing food and fabric for all the children of men.

From my depths and mountain-sides are mined all the useful and precious ores and metals.

In my forests are hewn the timbers which pass through lathe and plane into the palace of the prince, the house of the merchant, the humble home of the poor.

I am the Great City, where hundreds of thousands crowd, and men bid vast sums for the privilege of calling a few square feet their own. And as the city grows I become more sought after, and my value vastly increases.

As the population of the earth continues to grow, I shall be in ever-increasing demand, for my area does not expand.

People must live and I am the source of all sustenance.

I bear the burdens of taxation, for the expense of government and the welfare of all the people.

While but few, comparatively, among men claim title of possession, I am the Servant of Mankind.

I do not run away. I cannot be carried off. Fire nor elements can destroy me. I stand through the ravages of Time.

That is why I am called Real Estate.

Experts Realize Advantages of Making Investments Here; Own Your Own Home

Angeles, on a direct boulevard, gives it increased advantages too numerous to mention. The growth of Los Angeles, once practically dependent on the Southern California climate and tourists, is now fully assured by the very rapid development of manufactures and kindred industries and commerce, and by the building up of the rich territory tributary to that city, and by the expansion of their foreign trade. Industrial freedom is one factor which should not be overlooked. In the development of our industries in Southern California, we have not put all our eggs into one basket, so to speak. There are many industries that flourish better here than anywhere else. They are brought here by our climatic advantages, by resources and raw materials peculiar to this section, and last, but by no means least, by the certainty that Los Angeles is to become, at an early date, one of the three or four largest cities in the country.

There Is No Deadline

There is no deadline between which Los Angeles shall not expand. Especially between the city and the foothills. In due time Los Angeles will literally extend from the mountains to the sea, as for practical purposes, it does already.

It should not be forgotten in this connection that the principal import of Los Angeles is money. There is money with which to do things, in manufacturing, in commerce, in building. The official report of the local internal revenue district declares that there are more income tax payers in proportion to the total population in Los Angeles than in any other city in the country.

Millions of dollars are brought to Los Angeles every year by newcomers who come to spend the remainder of their lives here, and by men who expect to come later. These men do not wish to let their capital remain idle, and they see in Los Angeles the best field for the investment of their money.

In calling your attention to the growth of Los Angeles, it does not in any way detract from the advantages that Glendale has to offer for your future home, but rather clinches the argument, if there were any argument to be had. Rent receipts have never been accepted as legal tender so far as rerords show, in buying property, but equities in houses are always transferable or saleable, and your rent is thrown into the bargain. If property never advanced in value over purchase price, it would still be profitable to buy a home, as you are sure of saving the amount of rent which would be returned to you in case of a sale, but Glendale real estate is advancing satisfactorily, and will continue to enhance in value so long as this world exists, because people make values and people are coming to Glendale and Southern California as fast as they can arrange to do so.

Coming From Michigan

One small city in Michigan has sixty-five families who are now making plans to come to California in the spring of 1922. That city is only one of between fifteen and twenty thousand cities in the United States, and this year will undoubtedly see the biggest increase in population for Glendale that we have yet experienced, for when Southern California is considered and Glendale is mentioned, you have said it all, for there is no place in all the world like Glendale.

There may be local investors who are holding their property above reasonable figures, but prospective home buyers in Glendale are learning to consult members of the Glendale Realty Board for information regarding values, as the local board is well prepared to offer worth while information to those who ask it, and your protection lies in the fact that all members are striving to place themselves as realtors in the highest esteem of the public, by their transactions.

Build Now--in Verdugo Woodlands

Do you who live in Glendale know Verdugo Woodlands, located within the corporate limits of your city, is one of the highest class restricted foothill residence tracts of all Southern California?

Do you appreciate that in a comparatively short time upwards of two million dollars have been spent in property and over half a million dollars' worth of public and private improvements have been put in in Verdugo Woodlands?

Do you know that foothill residence sites in Hollywood now selling for from $10,000 to $50,000, less than ten years ago sold for as low as $2000?

Do you know what makes them worth these prices? Because discriminating people desire foothill locations for homes on account of wonderful living conditions affected by altitude, view, scenery and exposure.

Do you know that Verdugo Woodlands has much more beautiful homesites than any place in Hollywood? Come with us to this enchanted spot and make comparisons. Five minutes' ride to high and grammar schools, churches, stores, theatres, etc.

And, as to price, you have always intended to live under these conditions when you could afford it, and now is the time, for you can purchase a large villa site or a lot, any size or shape you desire, for $1000 and upwards, on easy terms. The greatest value in high class restricted foothill property any place adjacent to Los Angeles.

We also have to offer a few well built houses in this tract at surprisingly low prices, on terms to suit.

We also have a few lots restricted to business that will make you a lot of money as an investment or a fine place for your business.

Why Own Your Home? W. L. Truitt Tells Why

BY W. L. TRUITT
812 South Brand Blvd.

Every family should own their home regardless of their financial condition, especially in southern California, where the joys of life are boundless and nature is ever beckoning and inviting you to come out and enjoy her glories. It matters not how humble the home may be, if it is your very own, it will pay priceless dividends in contentment and happiness. Dividends that cannot be computed in dollars and cents.

The feeling of security and independence enjoyed by the home owner is alone worth more than the price of any house that has ever been built, and those of you who have not yet enjoyed the pleasure of home ownership have not lived to the utmost, and are depriving yourselves of your God given rights.

The opportunities for home owning in Glendale and vicinity are so unlimited, and the cash requirements and terms of payments so reasonable, that home owning can and should be 100 per cent efficient.

The purchase of a home is the consummation of the best bargain any one ever made, regardless of price terms or conditions.

Those of you who are waiting for so-called bargain prices to prevail before buying a home, are not only fattening the purses of the landlord, but are cheating yourselves, your families, and the community. Home owning makes for better citizenship, more independence, more happiness, more contentment, and more loyalty and patriotism.

Construction Work Is Maker of Prosperity

Home building creates confidence, inspires activity and makes prosperity.

That is why every business firm should endorse and support "Own Your Own Home" movements and convert their surplus money into home-building channels.

You as one of the units of our city can do your share in stimulating prosperity and helping in this worthy movement by supporting an own-your-own-home campaign and by helping to finance home building. One or a few cannot successfully cope with these big problems. It takes complete co-operation to achieve worth while results.

If we all join forces, work hand in hand and shoulder to shoulder, and each do our part, it will mean the promoting of progress and prosperity.

Increased incomes coupled with our newly acquired national habit of thrift, find most of us able to meet a fair-sized monthly payment on some investment.

All around you is evidence of determination. What others have done you can do.

BUSINESS MAN HAS SUGGESTIONS TO IMPROVE CITY

Writer Urges Certain Changes Be Made in Parking Space; Gas Filling Stations

The publisher of The Glendale Evening News is in receipt of a communication from a prominent resident and business man of Glendale, who has a large investment here. The communication is prefaced by the declaration: "I request that my name be not signed to this letter." Ordinarily The Glendale Evening News does not publish communications unless the name of the writer appears. However, an exception is made in this case. The communication:

Editor Evening News—The writer being interested in making Glendale a better place in which to live, has some ideas which may be of interest and of benefit to the public generally, and to Glendale people particularly. I have, therefore, decided to submit for publication several articles or suggestions, which, if they contain anything of sufficient value to be acted upon by the city authorities or by the Chamber of Commerce or any other organization, I will feel that it is worth while.

First of all, I will take up the subject of "Parking and Parking Regulation." The pavement on Brand boulevard has been marked off in stalls occasionally, but these white marks are soon obliterated by grease and dirt, and within thirty days are not clearly shown. This marking should be done at least twice a year and the white mark should extend to the curb and up on the face of the curbing, so that even when the mark has disappeared on the paving it will show on the curb and in the gutter where tires do not pass over it and will continue to designate stalls much longer than the present system. As it is now cars are parked at such irregular intervals that often two cars occupy space that would and should accommodate four.

The greatly increased number of people and automobiles in Glendale in the past year has made parking space a serious problem to both merchants and the public. Time limits are a nuisance and should be avoided as long as possible, and may be postponed indefinitely if all will cooperate to improve conditions. Last year it was possible to find parking space near to any store or office at any time, but now it is frequently necessary to park in the next block and walk back, or go somewhere else to trade.

Customers Turned Away

It seems that the merchants have not given this problem due consideration, and few have analyzed it thoroughly or realize what it means to them. Some merchants even let their own cars stand in front of their store all day, thereby preventing dozens of others from parking there and coming in to purchase supplies.

A great many customers turn away from many places of business every day on that account. Some business men are clever enough to see it and park in front of some other fellow's store, but it would be better if he took his car around in the rear, or left it in the garage out of the sun and increase sales by using better judgment before being forced to do so. On a busy day the stalls change occupants on an average of every twenty minutes.

There is entirely too much valuable parking space taken up with fire plugs, gasoline and air service, and driveways which could be eliminated, theatre entrances, etc. Fire plugs should really be located on the corners opposite where street cars stop to load passengers, so that this space left clear for fire plugs would also benefit the public getting from sidewalk over to the cars and vice-versa. It would be well for all cities to consider this suggestion in placing new fire plugs and in changing over some of the old ones. For instance, the fire plug in front of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings bank, Brand boulevard branch, should be over in front of Spohr's Drug store. This fire plug mentioned as one example takes up space where eight cars might park. If they changed occupants every twenty minutes, twenty-four cars per hour could use that parking space, or 240 cars bring customers into that block in ten hours Saturday afternoon and evening, to say nothing of other days.

Clearance on One Side

Another argument for placing plugs on corners is that if they are placed there they will require a clearance on only one side instead of thirty feet on each side, as when placed in the center of a block, and if the ordinance were amended they need not have more than space occupied by one auto stall, because the cars nearest the plug would be at an angle or space wider out in street than at curb, and also having no interference whatever on the other side the firemen would never have any difficulty making hose connections on fire plugs so located.

1ST AD BUSINESS MAN—

It seems a shame to prevent people from parking anywhere near a fire plug when said plug is not used once in twenty years, and if needed some time, a car parked ten feet or even six feet from that plug would not interfere enough to take the firemen six seconds longer to connect the hose than if 100 fee of clearance were maintained on each side of it for the twenty years. The best way to prove this would be to put it up to the firemen and park a car six feet from the fire plug on the corner and let them try making a quick hose connection and decide just how much space is really necessary. This old ordinance was framed when parking space was not at such a premium and probably without asking the thorough consideration of the fire department.

I am sure that the firemen are sufficiently public-spirited to allow the public all the space possible, reserving only what space is absolutely necessary to safety. The curbing in front of fire plugs should be painted red, with "Don't Park Here" stenciled in white on it.

Notice Is Still There

Again calling attention to the block on Brand, just north of Broadway, there are no fire plugs on the west side of the street, but there are three in that block on the east side of the street besides an extra valve, which has recently been removed and capped. This valve when in use was protected with a notice on the curb in large, red letters "Don't Park Here." This notice still remains and is the cause of many strangers heading in only to back out again, and go on to try and find another stall, while a citizen familiar with conditions parks there and pays no attention to the ancient notice. I would suggest that this mark on the curb be obliterated by brushing cement over the red letters or scraping them off. The city should do this promptly to be fair to the timid and the bold alike. It being right near the postoffice it is especially annoying with three other fire plugs reserving space nearby.

One real estate firm has signs up "Park Here for Real Estate Only" and a cigar dealer says he is going to put up signs "Park Here for Cigars Only." Others try to reserve space illegally, and it is a question whether the city can legally prosecute parking violations unless the police department makes it perfectly clear just where we cannot park and have individuals remove their signs.

Filling Stations on Curbs

Gasoline filling stations on the curb should also be eliminated. The dealers have no moral right to take up that parking space when the public can now get their supply of gas at regular filling stations close to the business section without interfering with traffic or parking rights.

The joke of it is that very few people patronize those curb-filling stations, but a dealer maintaining one feels reasonably certain that he can always keep space clear in front of his store for his own use, and to make it more certain they usually put air service on both sides of the gasoline pump at considerable distance apart, and put up signs no parking between these, and keep their entire front open for their own use and drive away hundreds of customers who would come in and buy supplies and accessories if they could get parking space near without taking chances on being arrested.

With plenty of filling stations much more convenient on private property nearby these curb filling stations are no longer a necessity, only a nuisance, and should not be permitted any more than popcorn stands or fruit stands along the curb. It would benefit not only the public but the dealers, and also other business houses nearby to eliminate all curb stations and unnecessary "No Parking" signs. The rented value of a store is regulated principally by the number of people who pass that location, which, in turn, is affected by the number of machines that can park in that block. Many people make it a point not to patronize merchants who have up the seemingly selfish "No Parking" signs, so, instead of gaining business, they lose.

Ordinance on Theatres

The ordinance as applied to parking in front of theatres might also be improved. There is too much space wasted there. It is very seldom that a chauffeur requires this space to load or unload passengers, and one vacant stall would be sufficient for a car to head in and unload occupants and back out again, the same as if patronizing a grocery store. Instead of keeping thirty feet space clear, one stall, or room for one car at a time, is all thot would be necessry, and these signs should not be placed at the curb only when shows are running. Saturday morning and about noon every day this space might be occupied for parking without interfering with people who want to go to the theatre. Nearly all patrons park their cars near by and walk to theatre together, instead of stopping at entrance.

It is necessary to have some publicity and discussion on such problems before any action is taken by the city authorities or organizations, and the writer hopes that all these points will be considered and the ordinance urged to be amended by influence of public opinion. Everyone should be willing to help make Glendale a better place in which to live.

THAT'S MY HOME! IS DECLARATION OF PROUD CITIZEN

Substantial Man Is One Who Lives in Own House; He Is Happy in Future

"THAT'S MY HOME."

That is the word he speaks as he comes back from work at night. Who is he? He is one of the vertebrae of this nation. He is the man who owns his home.

It may be but a cottage; it may be almost hidden 'neath shrubs, vines and flowers; it may be ever so humble, but it is his. Every inch of it, every spear of its grass, every stick of its timber is his—all his.

"THAT'S MY HOME."

Can you see the world of affection and emotion which plays around that expression?

Weigh All Questions

That man will be a sober and substantial citizen. He will weigh all questions carefully from the focus of that little home. He will be happy in the fulfillment of life's greatest achievement. The ownership of a home represents permanency in which one's loved ones will be surrounded with ideal environments. That man will be no Bolshevik, no insurrecto, no flaming radical.

"THAT'S MY HOME."

The man who says that may speak no menace consciously; but in the love and affection of those words is the sternest menace to which this world ever listens; for the man who speaks them is ready to stand on that threshold and pay with the last drop of his blood for the possession of those few feet of ground and all that they contain.

"THAT'S MY HOME."

There is pride, self-respect, the upheld head and firm step in that word. There is solidity. There is the rock-ribbed strength that makes a nation great. Let invaders beware of a people whose universal cry is—"That's my home."

Ownership of Home of First Importance

Realization that ownership of a home is of first importance and that the cost of materials and labor has become standardized everywhere, heads of families are turning their thoughts toward acquiring homes. Never before in the history of the United States has there been as many homes under construction as there are today.

The recent rise in wages for the railroad men, which in turn will mean advances in freight rates, is having a stimulating effect, and building records will out-distance those which set new high records for the United States.

Start today acquiring a home of your own.

Children Entitled to Proper Environment

Can your children refer and look back to their childhood days as being surrounded with proper environments?

Does the home you are now housing them in reflect comfort, light and cheerfulness, with sanitary conveniences and properly arranged for entertainment, etc., or are they putting up with just any old thing—a rented house in which you and your loved ones are merely existing?

Provide for them a home, "Home Sweet Home," the homiest, sweetest, most convenient, practical and inexpensive home, reflecting character.

Other investments may look attractive, but the first and greater investment is a home of your own.

A home pays daily dividends of happiness, contentment and comfort, that knows no percentage rule—dividends that cannot be measured by the dollar standard.

HOME IS CRADLE OF DEMOCRACY

It has been said with truthfulness that "the home is the cradle of democracy." Americanism was founded on the platform of freedom and independence and in home ownership we fully realize the meaning of these two American ideals: Freedom from the waste and burden of paying rent and independence in the shelter and protection we are privileged in giving our loved ones. Nothing can promote more happiness and contentment in a family than the possession of their own home, and, appreciating this, our every effort should be toward attaining and maintaining ideal homes, for everything we do to aid success and even success itself can be rightfully measured by the happiness and contentment that comes from home ownership.

Durabilt Homes and Garages Are Durable

Here's evidence of the influence of The Glendale Evening News in building the city. R. N. Greenlaw is connected with the Glendale Realty company of 133 South Brand boulevard, having come here with his wife a year and one-half ago. The latter sent copies of this paper to her sister, Mrs. C. E. Williams at Marshall, Ill., which her husband read. Every line of information about the building developments here were closely scanned by this eastern manufacturing lumberman and on December 17 he "dropped in" unannounced. After two weeks looking over the situation he returned to Illinois and sold out his interest in the business there and on the last day of January he was back in Glendale ready for business.

Mr. Williams has made a specialty of sectional buildings for years, having perfected the "Durabilt" type of homes, garages, etc., which are known for being "built for permanence." He has bought a lot at the corner of Windsor and San Fernando Roads and his first California-made "Durabilt" is now ready for inspection.

The building has its appeal to anyone wanting a home quickly, and yet of a character which can be finished at any time in a manner to compare with the finest home.

TEN PER CENT WAGE CUT

BROCKTON, Mass., March 18.—Employes of forty-four shoe factories here and in other Massachusetts shoe towns are affected by a ten per cent wage cut just announced. More with $8000. The money was to have fected by the decrease.

OWN KEY TO YOUR FRONT DOOR, IS GOOD ADVICE

Say, Mr. Renter! Look at These Figures and Then Get Busy, Is Suggested

Have You, Mr. Renter, ever stopped to figure how much money you spend for rent, and how little you get for these valuable dollars? Just a few dollars a month, but how much a year? Then, how few years would it take to equal the value of the property you occupy?

If you have never taken the time or trouble to figure the amount of money you have and are paying out for rent, the following table compiled at $30 per month, compounded monthly, will give you food for thought:

YOU PAY—

First year	$ 380.10
Second year	800.03
Third year	1,263.92
Fourth year	1,776.16
Fifth year	2,342.21
Sixth year	2,967.52
Seventh year	3,657.48
Eighth year	4,420.41
Ninth year	5,262.30
Tenth year	6,193.39

You never stopped to figure it out before, did you? You had no idea your dollars would multiply so fast.

NOW LISTEN—Any family who can afford to pay rent can as well afford to buy a home, for the same dollars that you give the landlord will pay the monthly installments on a home of your own.

This saving is a strong argument itself. But the greatest value of your own home is not conveyed in the deed. The daily income of happiness, independence and pride of possession is a joy and pleasure beyond measure by the standard of dollar value. It represents real achievement—old age protection, a refuge from life's adversities and a badge of real citizenship.

There is no plausible reason why you should not arrange to start immediately acquiring a home and carry the key to your own front door.

Plan Definite Start to Save for Home

The home is the most sacred institution in the world.

The time to instill the love of home is in childhood—the memories of those happy days at home guide and direct the character through life.

Are you rearing your family in a home of your own—where surroundings and associations will develop the best there is in your children?

If not—now is the time to start. Plan a definite saving each day, each week, with which to buy your home—soon you can take your first step in home ownership—the balance can be paid as easily as rent and you have something to show for your efforts.

Let your banker, your employer, or a realtor advise you and tell you how you can own your home.

The big thing is to get started—to economize on your pleasures enough to make the first payment.

After that it will come easy—"OWN YOUR HOME."

Progress Reflected in Building Activities

Operation means to work.

Co-operation means to work together.

Co-operation is the agency of advancement and development, and the watchword of modern progress.

Co-operation is the secret of community development, every citizen working hand-in-hand, shoulder-to-shoulder for the upbuilding of their community and the betterment of its citizens.

Progressive cities and towns are those with co-operative citizens, broad-minded community builders who are not self-centered to the detriment of their co-citizens, but who labor unselfishly to promote the interests of their home town. Every builder is a co-operatist, a developer, a maker of progress, and an aid to community development. Home building is an evidence of faith in the future of your city. The first aid to any city is building new, modern homes, or the modernizing of their old ones. Building activities reflect progress.

BANDIT LEADER EXECUTED

NOGALES, Ariz., March 18.—Francisco Diaz, bandit leader, who was captured by federal troops at Guaymas, was executed at Ortiz, military headquarters for the state of Sonora, according to word received here. Diaz, who was 24 years old, had terrorized the west coast for several months, operating at the head of a band of 400 men.

W. H. ARMSTRONG SAYS:

There are several things to consider when buying a lot:

Beauty of View: Mountain View tract is admirably situated to command an unobstructed view of the Verdugo Mountains and the San Fernando Valley.

Accessibility: Mountain View is adjacent to the San Fernando Road, a direct artery to Los Angeles, and a choice of transportation is offered, either by motor, bus or Burbank P. E. line to Los Angeles.

Investment: Some lots are suitable for your own particular home, but are not particularly desirable, to most people, making them easy to sell. Mountain View lots are especially well located and have a decided resale value, and make an excellent investment, as their value will steadily increase.

Walking Distance of Industrial Section: Mountain View tract is within walking distance of the greatest industrial section in Southern California.

This subdivision includes all street work, water, light, gas, and is situated on the San Fernando Road, near Glendale City Limits, the tract office being nearly opposite the Burbank Milling Company.

BUILDING PROJECTS GET SUPPORT OF 'LIVE' PEOPLE

Progressive Citizens Ready to Further Movement Behalf 'Own Your Own Home'

In home-building a new phase of patriotism is expressed. For this reason mayors of cities should co-operate with chambers of commerce, real estate boards, women's clubs, together with the business firms in promoting a movement which represents the most practical of all reconstruction efforts.

It is important to keep in mind that the attitude towards an own-your-own-home movement must be, first of all, that of interest in civic, social and business betterment. The prospective home-owner's interest equals in importance that of all other elements combined.

Big Aid to Enterprise

O w n - your-own-home campaigns have proved to be aids to present-day business enterprise and largely conducive to sustained progress in civic development. At this time they have a new significance, since they present a practical method for solving the housing question.

O w n - your-own-home campaigns are being supported by progressive business men because they realize in home building lies the real secret of prosperity. It arouses local pride and civic ambitions, a pull-together spirit which will bring about many community benefits. A building movement is the one public undertaking that makes the double appeal to municipal pride and personal interest. It promises profit to every business firm and happiness to all.

Realty Board's Heads Meet in L. A. March 25

The quarterly conference of the directors and officers of the California Real Estate association will be held at the Hotel Alexandria, Los Angeles, all day Saturday, March 25. The conference will discuss the national convention plans as related to the state association and realty boards. Transportation, irrigation, reclamation, housing and taxation in relation to real estate development also will be brought up. President C. C. C. Tatum will call the conference to order at 9:30. The presiding officer during the day will be Regional Director O. A. Vickrey of Los Angeles.

The regional conference will be preceded by the dinner of the Long Beach Realty board at the Hotel Virginia. At this affair the president's cup offered by President Fred E. Reed at the last state association convention will be presented to the winner, Henry P. Barbour, president of the Long Beach Realty board. Barbour made the home town talk for Long Beach in competition with twenty-one other cities.

St. Paul's cathedral, London, took thirty-five years to build.

James Pearson Tells Why Glendale Grows

In an interview with James W. Pearson, real estate and insurance agent of 108 North Brand boulevard, he expressed himself as follows regarding why Glendale has grown so rapidly and is being selected as the most desirable place in which to own a home.

"The rapid growth of Glendale has been the cause of comment throughout California for some time. It is not a boom growth, but a steady and healthy growth. It is a well-known fact that throughout our whole country thousands of eyes are looking with longing eyes towards California. When these newcomers arrive they look around at all the cities and towns. Glendale is not heralded about as some of the other cities are, but, some way or another, they get to see us. When they do, they usually get such a favorable impression that they decide to locate here. No wonder! Glendale is the cleanest looking and most symmetrically arranged city that can be found. The streets are wide and as the building restrictions have been lived up to in most cases the general appearance is one of order and cleanliness.

"The location of our city is ideal. The view of the foothills is superb. The class of people is the best that can be found, and strictly American. No wonder they decide on Glendale. They just can't help it. "A home in Glendale—a real dream come true. So many have found it out. They tell and write others to that effect. Thus, they come, and will continue to come. There is no let up. It sounds well, tastes good and wears well. What better could one ask, when it comes to having their heart's desire—a home?

Buy Glendale Realty; Value Steadily Grows

"Business is good!" That's what W. T. Burton of Parish & Burton, realtors, Rudy Building, declares. He continues with:

"You, Mr. Renter, pay for a house every eight years. At the end some landlord owns the house, has your rent money, and you have nothing but worthless receipts as proof that you are evading your duty to wife and family. The year 1922 is decision year. You can't delay until next year and get today's inducements.

"If you buy real estate intelligently, and that is what we hope you will do, there is no reason why your buying real estate should be guesswork in the least.

"But this is sure: Every piece of real estate bought intelligently today in Glendale is certain to double and treble in value within a very few years.

"Paying for land on installments, if you keep within your means, compels economy, gives an object in life. Buy good land. Glendale has it. Build a home in 1922."

PICTURE STARS ARE SUED

Emery Park

The New Home City---Only a Few Minutes from Downtown

Think of it—751 street cars passing Emery Park skirting its boundaries, Huntington Drive, Fremont every day. And four main automobile arteries Boulevard, El Monte Boulevard and Main Street, Alhambra.

Within 20 minutes or less after you jump into your car at Emery Park you are right downtown in Los Angeles.

And you haven't broken any speed laws to do it. You've had the sun at your back on the way in, and it will be at your back on the way home at night.

You who have lived where you have had to drive into the glaring sun on your way to work in the morning and again on your way home at night—will appreciate this.

Adequate transportation—that's the big feature to consider when you buy property.

You Buy the Lot--We'll Finance the Building

You'll have good neighbors. You'll be convenient to schools, churches, stores, theatres—to everything worth while. Improvements now in progress at Emery Park will cost $750,000.00.

Buy now to get the full benefit of the increase in value. 50-foot lots now as low as $1250 on convenient terms.

Opening sales have shown how Emery Park appeals to people who have looked around. Plans are already laid to start several homes at Emery Park within the next week. Select your lot now. Get the advantage of opening prices and first choice of locations.

Impulse to Build Is Really Just Starting

The housing campaign is just beginning. On every hand one hears talk of excavations, blue prints, front elevation, overhang and what not, all in cheering token that the hammers of progress have begun to ring again in optimistic chorus. There is no surer sign of returning health than the impulse to build. The man who sets out to build anything says goodbye to morbid fears and dejection. He may, and often will, lose his temper, but he is in no danger of losing the zest of living. And having made for himself a stable habitation, not only will he face the future more serenely, but the same constructive impulse will be carried into other kinds of industry.

There is every reason, therefore, to rejoice with Secretary Hoover that the "lamentable need for housing" is in a fair way to be filled. Remember, though, that this is not merely a quantitative matter. While we are building, we might as well build strongly and well, and keep individual caprices in the matter of decoration and plan aligned with the larger needs of street, district and city.

We are building not only a house, but a community, and by co-operation in design and construction, the added attractiveness of the city will enhance the beauty and value of every man's abode. One need not go to the Utopian extremes of the protagonists of the "city beautiful," nor speak too excitedly of the "temple not built with hands," but more than brick and plank and stone must go to the fulfillment of the opportunity that offers itself here. "We are the builders of cities," run the words of a great song, but while realizing this part of the poetic boast, we need not shrink from fulfilling the rest of it, and proving ourselves in a large and practical sense "the dreamers of dreams."

Rain Doesn't Prevent Hart Realty Sales

Speaking of rain, L. A. Hart of the Hart Realty company at 113 East Broadway, is jubilant over the sales made by his firm during the past rainy season. It may be that Mr. Hart hails from Oregon, where rain is common, but at any rate, their sales recently cover a valuable East Broadway parcel, a North Central avenue corner, a three-cornered deal involving four pieces of Glendale property, two shoe stores and two lots and a beautiful Patterson avenue home.

Optimism reigns supreme with this firm. Mr. Hart stated that their only regret is that they do not have a home to fit the requirements of a large number of prospects, which might be taken as a hint as to whether you have listed yours for sale with this live firm.

Uncle Levi Zink tells us he once fell in love with a young lady, but abandoned all idea of marrying her when he found that she and all her family were opposed to it.

MAKE START TODAY! OWN YOUR HOME! URGES C. OF C.

Take Lesson in Thrift; Put Aside Something Every Day for 'Home, Sweet Home'

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce submits the following in the Own Your Own Home Campaign.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce says:

OWN YOUR OWN HOME!
HOW CAN I—AND WHY?

First, take a lesson in thrift in saving. Start today to lay aside something each day. Put it in the savings bank—if only a dollar a week, or in a building and loan company. It will surprise you how soon you will have enough to make the first payment on a lot.

When you do, go and buy that lot; make your first payment with your savings, then save and meet your monthly payments on that lot. Make them just as fast as you can until you have it paid for.

Do Some Planting

In the meantime plant some trees, plan your home, plant your lawn, later build your garage and live in it until you can save more. Take out some building and loan shares and borrow enough to build your home and pay it just as you would rent. This is one way and a very good way to own your own home.

If you have never owned a piece of real estate, when you get your own lot and look the world in the face and say, "I own this lot, it is mine," there will be a feeling of independence come over you that you have never before experienced.

You will then be a part of the community in which you live. You will have an established residence, be a recognized land owner. You will own your own home, be entitled to extended credit, you will have a voice in community affairs and upbuilding. You will be better off, so to speak. Your merchant will be benefitted as he will have more confidence in you.

More Interest In Home

If you are raising a family those children will, when they have grown up, have more interest in their home and in you; they will look upon their home as the home of their father and mother; more pleasant memories will be carried along through their life as having been reared in their own home. It will teach them a lesson of frugality and give them a desire to own their own home as did their father and mother. It will be a lasting lesson to your whole family.

Start today. Start now to save. Cut out one cigar a day. Cut out one trip—one something, that you can get along without, and start that savings account, that in a comparatively short time will enable you to OWN YOUR OWN HOME.

It's Easy to Secure Home of Your Own

By E. D. HAMLIN
(Member of the firm of Hamlin & Hepburn, subdividers of Fairview.)

In the last issue of McCall's magazine Gene Stratton Porter writes a wonderful "home" article under the heading, "No Man Can Love the Home He Rents."

The road to happiness, she points out, lies in owning a bit of ground and a roof of your own, no matter how humble.

Most people just naturally want to own their own home, especially when rents are so high, and during the last few months we have helped hundreds realize their ambitions.

The first step is to select a desirable lot close to a car line in a section that is building up rapidly. Our eighth unit at Fairview is ideal. Payments of $50 down secures a lot—or less if need be.

Then arrange to put up a temporary house and live in it at once. You save the rent and the appreciation (something you seldom hear about) in the value of your property will equal the amount saved in paying rent. You will have no trouble in meeting the payments which are less than the cheapest room you can rent.

When your lot is clear of incumbrance you can borrow and put up a more substantial home that you will be proud to call your residence.

When Ford got the prices of his car reduced so it became the "universal car," thousands of people bought cars who could not handle any other automobile proposition. They paid out on their machines and later traded the humble flivver for a better car.

But the big idea lies in the fact that they got an automobile with which to get about. Now it is actually easier to get a home of your own at Fairview than it is to buy a Ford.

L. A. Report Shows Increase in Building

Los Angeles building operations are going at more than a nine million-dollar clip for March. The number of permits issued up to and including March 14 was 1932 and the estimated valuation $4,679,213. This compares with 1475 permits with an estimated valuation of $4,785,365 for the corresponding period in February, which included one permit with an estimated valuation of $1,200,000. It is not at all probable there will be any diminution of building activities in March. On the other hand they may be expected to increase as weather conditions improve.

To test a man's friendship, try to borrow $5 from him.

NOTHING TO GAIN BY WAITING TO BUILD HOME

How Much Money Have You Lost by Paying Rent in Last Several Years?

Good authorities and careful observers agree that it will take several years—estimates vary from four to seven years—to make up the housing shortage in the Southland. The shortage has already existed for three or four years.

Every man or woman who has been paying rent during the past four years should ask himself or herself these questions:

"How much have I lost, the last four years through paying rent instead of owning a home?"

"How much shall I lose if I continue to pay rent another four or five years?"

The answer is easy. The rent payer will have lost enough in eight or nine years to pay for a nice home.

Which is the better way. To pay rent and get nothing for it but a place to stay; or to buy a home and have a place to stay which shall be all one's own and paid for, at the end of the period?

No Use to Delay

It is obvious that there is nothing to be gained by putting off buying a home now. It is equally clear that the person who continues to pay rent is bound to be a big loser.

Values are bound to advance. There is no getting away from it; and the man who owns well-located real estate in Glendale, improved or unimproved, is bound to make money as well as save money.

Edwards & Wildey Co.'s Local Office Is Busy

In Glendale, every week seems to be "Own Your Home Week," according to Messrs. Macpherson & McMullin, managers of the Edwards & Wildey company's offices in Glendale, who report a steady demand for homes and homesites in Glendale.

"It is very interesting to meet the people coming to Glendale and learn at first hand their first impression of our city," said Mr. Macpherson, in talking with an Evening News reporter. "Our business section impresses all of the newcomers; the width of Brand boulevard, the character of our store buildings, the inviting window displays of our merchants and the character of the goods they display, all cause much favorable comment, while the number of people shopping and the number and class to the automobiles that solidly line the streets, show more plainly than we could explain, that business is good and here are opportunities indeed, for those seeking business locations.

"Our business streets and stores play a great part, too, in influencing home buyers to locate here," says Mr. Macpherson, "for, rather than contend with the congested condition of the shopping centers of Los Angeles, the people want to know that they can trade in their home city with the same degree of satisfaction and at the same price that they can trade in Los Angeles, and it is an easy matter to prove to them that here in Glendale this can be done.

"Those who have come to know Glendale as a city appealing chiefly to the so-called middle class, are soon going to sit up and take notice," continued Mr. Macpherson. "I make this claim in view of the great amount of inquiry we are receiving regarding our holdings in the close-in Kenneth Road foothills. We are not only selling a great number of moderate priced lots close to Kenneth Road with building restrictions of $4000, we are receiving as well a great deal of inquiry regarding the more valuable Kenneth Road frontage. This inquiry is coming from those who have been investigating the available foothill property around Los Angeles and find that the Glendale foothills offer them all the advantages and beauty of the Hollywood and Beverly Hills at one-fourth the price. The next year or two will see our Glendale hills dotted with beautiful homes and property values doubled and trebled.

Arthur Campbell Is Proud of Hillcrest

Hillcrest — there's a combination of words that says a lot. It tells the kind of a place that you can make your home. It is advertised by Arthur Campbell of 110 East Broadway as a superior tract, lying on Virginia avenue, fronting on Kenneth road.

It is a very popular property, according to Mr. Campbell, who has made several cash lot sales in the last few days to people who are going to build immediately.

"The home builder is the person I like to deal with," said Mr. Campbell. Several fine structures are being built in the vicinity of Hillcrest and on lots in that tract. Indeed, there is no section of Glendale superior to Kenneth road."

Mr. Campbell has been a resident of northern Glendale for the last eighteen years and is thoroughly familiar with property values not only there, but throughout the city. He has listings of practically everything in the better class which is for sale and his office is in a position to show the prospective purchaser a variety of properties, giving the buyer the benefit of Mr. Campbell's experience and business associations.

A front gate of a farm in Oklahoma has this sign: "We shoot every tenth agent; nine have called so far today."

OWN YOUR HOME

Why do you Pay Rent? If you pay $60 per month rent at the end of seven years you have rent receipts showing you have paid $5040 to the Landlord. We can sell you modern Homes at terms as low as $500 to $1000 cash payment, and the balance like rent. A good buy for $1000 cash payment and balance like rent will buy a strictly modern 5-room bungalow; best grade hardwood floors throughout, living and dining room contain all the latest built-in features, and are finished in French gray, with beautiful wall paper and lighting fixtures to match. The two bedrooms, bath room and kitchen are finished in Old Ivory and white enamel; large garage with cement floor and driveway. Owner is leaving town and will sacrifice this beautiful home for the price of $4850.

I have some choice Foothill building lots planted to 5-year-old early peaches; choice location, one block to car line; includes electric light, gas and water. These lots are priced right. Size 66:71 by 167:05. Price $1300. Terms, 15 per cent cash, balance at your own terms; building restrictions $3000. Temporary home permitted on rear. We have a large listing of other property. Come in and let us show you. Three automobiles at your service.

BUILD HOMES, SAYS MAYOR ROBINSON IN STATEMENT

City Executive Urges People to Co-operate Fully in Proposed Campaign

By SPENCER ROBINSON
Mayor of the City of Glendale

Whereas, the governor of the state of California has issued a proclamation, calling upon the citizens of this great state to observe the week of March 19, 1922, as Own Your Own Home and Build Next Week, I take this opportunity to urge upon our own community hearty co-operation to our fullest extent through our local realty board, chamber of commerce, financial, industrial, building and housing organizations, and all civic, religious, fraternal, social and other bodies to make this grand statewide campaign a complete success.

"Our community is in need of more homes. The shortage in housing is acute. Investment of savings in home building will be a great stimulus to local industry and trade. Let us, then, make the coming week one of the greatest in our local history, that we may report to the people at large in the state of California that our fair city of Glendale has done its bit in providing needed homes to meet the ever-increasing demands by homeseekers for residence property in California.

I deem it a great pleasure and honor to commend the work of our Glendale Realty board for its splendid service to our community, and to also congratulate the California Real Estate association for its patriotic zeal and unselfish interest in advancing the cause of home owning throughout the fastest growing state in the union.

Building and Loan Help to Prosperity

During this "Own Your Home Week," campaign starting March 19, 1922, one should not overlook the great contributions of the building and loan associations throughout the United States, in the development and upbuilding of the various communities in which they have been located.

If they could but be told, the human experiences of benefits derived through consistent savings in these associations would make most interesting stories, and serve as splendid examples of courage and thrift to all.

Many a family has been saved from destitution by the accumulation of small, regular savings, which have been sufficient to tide them over a hard spell. There are others more fortunate, but who with just as much effort and sacrifice have consistently kept up their savings until they have had enough, with their accumulated dividends, to pay off a mortgage, or make their first payment on a home.

The towns and cities, generally have benefited greatly through the loaning capacity developed by these associations, for through this medium thousands and thousands of homes have been built.

It would be a surprise to all to know how many homes right here in Glendale have been built during the past two years alone, by the assistance of building and loan associations, principal among them being the California Security Loan corporation of Pasadena, and the Southern California-Metropolitan Loan association of Los Angeles, who now are represented locally by Hayward & McCartney at 142 South Brand boulevard.

Many of the contractors can testify to the work which has been provided them and their associates by this means; and their money has been spent with the merchants in Glendale, thereby assisting in keeping the wheels of commerce oiled.

So it can easily be seen that the building and loan associations have an influence on practically every tpye of business carried on in Glendale, and the people of Glendale are urged to consider these institutions.

Sunday Sermons to Start Week's Campaign

The week of March 19, starting with the Sunday sermons on Own Your Home and Build Now by the pastors of all the churches, is being devoted to the State Association's campaign in virtually all cities of the state.

The schools, the teachers and the pupils have been invited informally to co-operate with this movement. In a statement to the press, schools, churches, banks, contractors, title companies, material and supply houses, and all others interested in a home building drive from the standpoint of community benefit, President C. C. C. Tatum of the California Real Estate association pledged the practical help of the state membership in nearly 200 cities and towns of California.

Floyd A. Dernier, president of the Lumbermen's Service association at Los Angeles, is now on a tour of California towns enlisting the support of the boards and newspapers in the working out of the home owning plans.

C. A. Nagel to Build Big Bungalow Court

C. A. Nagel of Walnut Park has had plans prepared for a ten-unit bungalow court to be built on Central avenue in Glendale, according to the Southwest Builder and Contractor.

Are You Paying Rent? No Permanency There

A home in the true sense is not a leased or rented dwelling where no permanency is assured, but must be your very own—to have and to hold. Must be planned by a united family, erected by loving hands and paid for by willing sacrifices.

If you are renting there is no good reason why the money you are paying out for rent should not be used in making payments on a home.

Man Who Is Happy Has House of His Own

Harry H. Culver, state chairman of the Own Your Own Home campaign, one of the founders of Culver City and speaker recently before the Glendale Realty Board, says:

"There is a subtle difference between the sale of lots for a subdivision and the sale of lots for homes. Deep down in every heart is a longing for a home. The home is the most sacred institution in the world. Our customer, when he buys, is buying a home. The man who is happy in his home is going to prove to be the greatest asset in the building of a town."

SHERIFF SHOT AND KILLED

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 18.—Sheriff I. L. Smith was shot and killed, near Cleveland, Tenn., when he attempted to raid a whiskey still. The two operators of the still ran at the approach of the officer, but opened fire on him after concealing themselves in some brush. Bloodhounds have been placed on the trail of the slayers.

Golden Rule Realty Office Is Now Open

J. P. Lampert and John Yung have opened the Golden Rule real estate office at 622 East Broadway. The Golden Rule will endeavor to get the buyer and seller together on a basis which will be fair and profitable to both and are now securing listings of properties placed at fair valuations.

The Golden Rule is offering the public a tract at East Wilson avenue, near the foothills and close to the new Union High School site. Mr. Lampert is well known in Glendale and Mr. Yung comes here well equipped to render patrons of the concern good service. Mr. Yung has had about fifteen years' banking experience.

Get Real Information About Cost of Houses

Without a doubt there are a number of families in this town who would be building a home of their own if they had not been misled by talk about the high cost of building materials. And it is "talk," these cost-of-building rumors, for, like most rumors, it is gross exaggeration.

You owe it to yourself and your family to obtain definite information before you throw up your hands and say, "Oh, a home is out of the question now. We can't afford it."

The clipping or field sparrow is smaller than the English sparrow and has no spots on its breast.

Burbank Board Joins State Organization

The Burbank Realty Board at a largely attended meeting voted to affiliate with all its active members in the state association. The board is active in improving local street conditions and in bringing new intries to Burbank. At dinner served in the Woman's Club Hall, President C. C. C. Tatum and Regional Director O. A. Vickrey were the chief speakers. President W. A. Thompson presided.

A complete radio telegraph unit powerful enough to operate for distances up to fifteen miles, has been developed that weighs but sixty pounds.

Own Your Own Bit of Land; Build Home There

DESIRE TO SECURE HOME FOR FAMILY ONLY NATURAL

No One Can Acquire Highly Developed Affection for House Being Rented

The desire to own a home is one of the natural, primal instincts of every real man. A rented house can never become a real home in the highest, truest sense.

No family can ever acquire that deep-seated regard and heartfelt affection for a rented house that is naturally developed toward a home which they own. What incentive is there for a man to preserve or adorn or embellish a rented house, when he knows that his landlord may any day order him to vacate?

But when the place which shelters him and his loved ones is their very own, when no one has the right to raise his rent or order him to move out, then the place, however lowly or humble it may be, is, indeed, a home.

Have Love for Place

Then every member of the family becomes inspired with love for the place in which they live; they become interested in its adornment and beautifying, every tree and flower and shrub which they add to the place, every new day they live there, adds to the tender, loving associations entwined about it, until home becomes one of the sweetest words in human speech.

The gratifying of this deep-seated desire to own a home and the toil and sacrifice and self-denial by which it is won, refines, elevates and ennobles men; it inspires in them a self-respect and inspires in others a respect for them that makes them better men and better citizens, better husbands and fathers; gives them a standing and position and influence in the community as "freeholders" or "householders" that can never be attained by mere "tenants" or renters."

Glenview Acres Is Homeseeker's Paradise

"I attribute the success I have met with in the sale of the homesites in Glenview Acres to the fact that I have developed it with the view always in mind of making it strictly a high class home colony," said W. L. Truitt, owner of the tract. "The lots are very large, containing one-third of an acre each, affording ample room for spacious buildings, fruit flowers and shrubs, and only the very best of improvements have been put in or are allowed.

"Reasonable restrictions, exclude flats, apartments, business of all kinds, chicken ranches and shacks, and the sightly location on the southern slope, at the base of the Verdugo mountains, makes an alluring appeal to that class of home owners who appreciate the great out-doors. The wonderful view of mountain and valley in all directions, the freedom from fog and frost, the soft pure water, the proximity to the city, with convenient car service and all city conveniences, cannot help but appeal to the home lover who places his home and family above material things.

"One of the most alluring features of the tract is the fact that the prices have been held down to a reasonable figure and the terms are within the reach of the masses. A building service is also maintained for the financing and building of homes in the tract on unusually easy terms.

"Glenview Acres is in the center of an intense home development and it is predicted that this locality is soon to become the Wilshire of Glendale, and be built up solidly with homes of the better class."

Eagle Rock Permits Making Fine Showing

Eagle Rock has passed the "third of a million" mark in the first two months of the year. That means the permits there should total two millions and more by the end of the year.

COMMENT
THAT'S ALL

You Can Buy, Build, Work
Subways for Street Cars
Speaking of Intelligence
Always, There's a Reason

By Gil A. Cowan

SPRING and early summer are the logical seasons for investigating and investing in real estate. Today is your day of OPPORTUNITY.

Someone else spoke that thought some days ago, but it is so true that in view of the "Own Your Own Home" edition of The Glendale Evening News today, it is an all compelling statement.

If you accept the opportunity you will lay the foundation for future prosperity, not alone for yourself, but those who look to you for support and protection.

"BUY, BUILD, WORK" is one of the slogans used in the Rotarians' campaign for world-wide prosperity. There is a thought that needs no comment. We all can practice a part of the admonition by working. Others can build while almost any of us can buy.

And now is the time to do it!

Have you noticed the prices on automobiles now?

Well, they are at pre-war levels and some lower!

Glance through the columns of automobile advertising and familiarize yourself with the facts about the cars.

Economically speaking, now is the time not only to build a home, but to buy a car, too. The average person doesn't realize just how much transportation costs without a car of your own, especially if you are a business man.

Yet any sort of transportation is expensive nowadays in Los Angeles. Time wasted by traffic delays is taking a terrible toll in dollars and cents. A salesman tells that in order to get to Fifth and Spring streets he had to drive around a half hour to find a parking space—at Eighth and Los Angeles streets, some five blocks away.

Some day there will be a subway and the Better Los Angeles Federation today is advocating placing all interurban and through street cars underneath the ground, leaving the streets for an omnibus surface system which will be mobile in case of a traffic tie-up.

Really, it is interesting to get other people's impressions of things that are, especially when such a person as Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid is talking.

Quoting some scholastic friend, he said that if people were intelligent they would not read the type of news written today. Admitting that to be a fact, the newspapers would be FIRST to give the people what they wanted in the way of literature.

But if people were intelligent they wouldn't stand for the "bunk" that the majority of our universities are peddling, either? Nor would numerous sensational clergymen continue to preach.

Education and evolution go hand in hand. The other day I had the pleasurt of browsing through a book of clippings kept by that eminent stage and film producer, Charles A. Taylor, who today is lecturing in Glendale.

The melodrama of a generation back is crude; the newspaper criticisms, as we think of them today, are boresome; the actresses to be seen in the old pictures overdressed.

America may need education, but it takes time to assimilate the spoonful being served today. Harking back to our forefathers of six to sixteen centuries ago (with the exception of the Greek, Italian, Jew and Chinese), they knew little or nothing, if our modern history is to be believed.

Certainly comprehension, emotion and other human attributes have developed wonderfully, even if the multitude remains skeptical as to "store boughten" knowledge. The fact that it can be bought likely limits its education and causes its prostitution by the wealthy who continue in control because they can pay the price of its protection.

Curious combinations sometimes are seen in the news dispatches. Yesterday from Indianapolis came the word that a shut-down of the coal industry is inevitable. Washington authorities said that the high cost of living is coming down very slowly. There's a reason, you will note.

WE BELIEVE THAT EVERYBODY SHOULD OWN THEIR OWN HOME

We are trying to make this possible, and have secured some special bargains for this week. Here are some real bargains, which you will find at our office, "The Mill," San Fernando Road and Park Avenue.

If Noah Had Screened the Ark

If Noah had exercised a little forethought and screened the Ark, the world would be a better place to live in today, for the filthy fly would have perished in the flood.

The Fly Is Your Enemy
Keep Him Out

The filthy fly is a source of much distress and disease that might be easily avoided.

Screen your home thoroughly and see that the screens are kept in good repair. This precaution will keep your home in a sanitary condition, your family's health unmolested, and rid you of the eternal nuisance of swatting the pest.

Noah didn't use his head. It's up to us to make up for his short-sighted negligence.

Consult our Cost Department about screening your home. Add another room to the house by having a porch screened and use as a sleeping room or sun parlor. All modern houses are equipped with both.

The cost of screening is comparatively small, especially when the safety and convenience are considered. You owe it to your family to protect them from the fly.

FIRST INVESTMENT SHOULD BE HOME, IT'S DECLARED

Gives You Confidence, Wins Respect of Neighborhood and Merchants, Too

Home Owners are the backbone of any community, of any nation.

They are the people who count in any locality.

To be a really effective force in any neighborhood, one must belong to that locality.

Renters are merely sojourners; they have no roots in any particular place.

The neighbors of a home owner feel that he is one of them, and place confidence in him.

To buy a home is the best introduction one can have in any community.

To be known as a home owner is the best recommendation possible for you.

It gives you the stamp of stability.

It ranks you among the earnest, thrifty people who are successful or on the way to success.

It gives you the confidence, not only of your immediate neighbors, but of the banker, the merchant, the community at large.

Success is founded on the confidence people have in you.

Owning your own home helps you in business. No matter what your work or position may be, owning your home will help you to better things.

Effect on Character

But home owning means more than material help; its great effect is on character.

To own a home makes for steadfastness of character; to move from place to place as a renter encourages shiftless habits of thought and action.

Home owning makes for self-reliance; being dependent on a landlord encourages one to rely on others than himself.

Home owning brings content; renting leads to restlessness.

Home owning brings independence, not only of circumstances but also of character and thought.

Home owning tends to make one a better father, a better mother, a better citizen.

It gives your children the invaluable benefit of real home influence.

No man has reached his full stature as a man and a citizen until he owns his home.

Do not put off home buying until you have the other things you want. Your first investment should be for a home.

This was the way of our fathers; this way lies true Americanism.

The best American in the nature of things is the man who owns a part of America—his home.

E. E. Sawyer Gives 'Blue Ribbon' Reason

Here's a story that E. E. Sawyer of the Sunset Motor company, 308 East Colorado boulevard, passes on in explaining the reason why the Dort car is such a winner.

Blue ribbon winners have been a habit with J. D. Dort, president of the Dort Motor Car company. It started in the long ago, when he expressed his preference for blooded stock by driving exceptional trotters singly and in pairs. These horses were up to their work—they could "read it" at speed and they could cover goodly distances, meeting all of the exactions because of their inherent qualities and the manner in which they were handled.

Mr. Dort was a big exhibitor of stock at fairs and shows and many a blue ribbon came his way, for what he had was select.

In the days of the Durant-Dort Carriage company, the vehicles which Flint sent to all parts of the seven seas where such transportation was the vogue, were thoroughbreds in their class. Labeled Blue Ribbon quality, they were such, and they merely reflected what Mr. Dort thought about such things. This factory grew until it was one of the greatest and quantity production was inaugurated, but never at a sacrifice of Blue Ribbon quality.

Your Wife Deserves Home of Convenience

What would a REAL home mean to your wife?

Picture the extreme happiness and contentment, the real pleasure she would receive in being the proud possessor of a home attractive in appearance; with such modern conveniences her labor in keeping and making a home for you would be transformed from work to one of pleasure. She would have more time for recreation, and you would be fully repaid for your efforts and any sacrifices you might be called upon to make in providing a home that would be a joy spot—a home worthy of the high esteem in which you hold your wife.

Independence Results When You Own Home

In all the world no other possession can give you such an assurance of independence, contentment, pride of ownership as does the deed to a home. Further, there is no other investment that is so sure, so safe and one that can be turned to in case of emergency in realizing ready money.

To the wife and kiddies, in case father is taken away, home means at least security against want.

There are a thousand reasons why you should build a home, with no opposition.

Beauty Tract Found at Mountain View

Mountain View tract has a number of points of superiority from a real estate standpoint, according to its manager, W. H. Armstrong, of 104 North Central avenue.

The beauty of the Verdugo hills and San Fernando valley as seen from this property is especially pleasing to Mr. Armstrong.

Five homes are now under construction in this tract and street improvements are under way, although their completion is being delayed slightly pending the installation of the water main. A new oil filling station also is being established for the convenience of householders in the district with automobiles.

"We all know that a restricted district is the place to invest," declared Mr. Armstrong. "I am personally interested in making this tract a beauty spot."

The accessibility of Mountain View tract is meeting much favor in the eyes of those who have investigated its possibilities. Situated adjacent to San Fernando Road, near the northern city limits of Glendale, the property is convenient both to Los Angeles and Burbank.

"Mountain View lots are especially well located and have a decided resale value," stated Mr. Armstrong. "They are an excellent investment as their value will steadily increase. If you are from Missouri, perhaps you will have to wait awhile longer but, if you do you will have to pay for it."

All plots in this tract are within walking distance of the industrial zone of Burbank.

Second Annual Picnic for Realtors Called

The Southern California Realtors' second annual picnic and regional conference will be held Friday and Saturday, May 12 and 13, at Long Beach. The meeting is to be attended by realtors from eight counties and thirty real estate boards. John G. Munholland of Long Beach is president of the picnic association. Last year at Santa Ana 3000 realtors and their wives attended.

The English sparrow has eliminated the thistle and caterpillar from New Zealand.

First Consideration; Do You Realize It?

We think, and our thoughts are a reality, that we need a new home—that the old home needs repairs or that some other improvements should be given attention. Other things less important receive consideration and our housing and building wants are kept as subjects to think about.

It's all wrong, folks. Homes and buildings should receive first conisderation.

The sparrow is one of the birds referred to in the Bible.

Build Without Delay, Is Suggestion Made

There are unmistakable and gratifying indications that building costs are as low as one can expect them to go, and home builders are realizing and taking advantage of present conditions to get new constructions under way at the earliest possible time.

The next few months is going to see building activities greater than ever before, and unless some unforeseen condition presents itself, the present house shortage will be completely coped with before the allotted time (five years) estimated by the government housing board.

cases. To the north of the study will be Father O'Neill's bedroom which will adjoin a tile bathroom with shower and ultra-modern fixtures. These quarters will be connected with the front staircase by a corridor.

Heating Plant In Basement

The heating plant will be installed in a special basement under the kitchen. This will be walled with reinforced concrete and floored with cement.

The front of the building will be surmounted with a sloping red tile roof. Above the main entrance will be a small grilled balcony behind which will be a narrow French door. The second story front wall will be relieved by two French semi-circular topped casement windows. There will be one square French casement window on the west side of the entrance.

A grilled balcony will be located on the east side of the second floor about the middle of the building. This will overlook the garden.

"We expect to be able to pour the concrete for the garage Monday," stated J. E. Carter of the Stuckey Construction Company, Los Angeles, yesterday. "The forms for this are almost ready now."

The general contractor for this building is R. H. Heath of Los Angeles.

Eagle Glen Heights Proves Popular Tract

The high esteem in which Glendale residential property is held by the portion of the public in search of permanent home sites, is shown by the rapid disposal by the J. Harvey McCarthy company of the recently opened tract on Broadway, Eagle Glen Heights. That company reports that 40 per cent of the lots have been disposed of already, with many sales at a stage where they may be expected to be closed any time and with every evidence that all the lots will have been assimilated in a very brief period.

In speaking of the principal factors in the success of Eagle Glen Heights, Mr. McCarthy said that its closeness to the splendid new Union high school site, with the Broadway Grammar school also close at hand, seemed to appeal to those who purchased more than anything else.

"Parents, especially the mothers, have a rooted objection to living at a place where schools are distant," he said. "It is a daily worry for them to send their little ones on a long trip to school. Real and fancied dangers are ever present in their minds and they are anxious until the youngsters reach home again. At Eagle Glen Heights we are able to offer home sites so close to schools that a complete education, from the kindergarten to graduation from high school, may be obtained practically at the door of the home, so that the children are always within touch."

Improvement work at Eagle Glen Heights has been pushed with great rapidity. The grading and street work are well along and the installation of the public utilities is being rushed. In fact, Mr. McCarthy says, any one who wishes to begin building operations can do so at once.

Own Your Own Home Plea of Gov. Stephens

William D. Stephens, governor of the state of California, is heartily in favor of the "Own Your Own Home Week" in this state, as the following proclamation by him shows:

"Whereas, there exists in California and its rapidly growing cities and towns a very great shortage of housing, I deem this moment opportune to call upon the people of the state of California to cooperate with their local realty boards, chambers of commerce, boards of trade, and civic, business and industrial interests of their communities, to relieve this pressing need for more homes.

"The campaign for more housing accommodations is vitally essential to the welfare and continued development of our state. California is essentially a state for the home-seeker and I believe that we are furthering the development of our own state and conserving the best interests of our people when we urge recognition by the pulpit, the school, and the press, and the business and industrial world, of the state-wide 'own your own home' movement.

"Particularly when industry and commerce need every helpful stimulus to revive business on a widespread scale do we need to encourage and foster every enterprise that looks to development of our home industries. Building now will be helpful in every way to investor as well as to the artisan and financier.

"Therefore, in recognition of the splendid work that the realtors of California are doing through the California Real Estate Association in behalf of home-owning and city-building, I declare and designate that the week of Sunday, March 19, 1922, shall be known in California as "Own Your Own Home and Build Now" week, and I most earnestly call upon all interested in this great work to give due support and encouragement to the campaign, that the demand for houses may be relieved and especially increased in every community."

Money invested in a home, in the improvement and up-keep of real estate, is the wisest of wise expenditures.

GLENDALE'S GROWTH WELL DESCRIBED BY BUILDINGS

Permits for Last Two Years Evidence This City Place For Home Loving Folk

961,927 over the total of $3,137,274 for 1921.

Although the last two years have been exceptionally prosperous in building activities, records for the past fourteen years show a steady increase in the appreciation of Glendale.

There is one exception to this rule, however. Figures for 1918, which are $97,193, show a big slump from the total of $287,360 for the previous twelve months.

Compare These Figures

Yearly records in the building office for the past decade are as follows: 1911, $416,210; 1912, $669,556; 1913, $646,727; 1914, $464,920; 1915, $222,705; 1916, $235,907; 1917, $287,360; 1918, $97,193; 1919, $591,439; 1920, $3,137,264; 1921, $5,099,210.

That this year is destined to be a banner year is indicated by the fact that the total of $421,890 for last month is over twice the total of $197,678 for February, 1921, and almost three times the record of $144,514 for the corresponding month of the previous year.

The past decade shows the following statistics for February: 1911, $23,450; 1912, $37,017; 1913, $58,500; 1914, $36,935; 1915, $9,110; 1916, $19,115; 1917, $16,715; 1918, $12,981; 1919, $7,600; 1920, $144,514; 1921, $197,678; 1922, $421,890.

Many Homes Built

Last year 2359 building permits were issued. Of this number the greatest proportion or 753 were for garages, barns and additions. However, 447 five-room bungalows and 432 four "roomers" were started by local contractors. Seventy-three houses over eight rooms in size were built and forty seven "roomers" and one "celled" domiciles, while 165 three-roomed bungalows were constructed and 121 two-roomed homes.

One hundred and ninety thousand dollars' worth of apartment houses were built in Glendale last year; $897,240 worth of industrial and business property.

Coker & Taylor Buy Stoves in Carload Lots

Purchasers of Direct Action gas ranges will be able to save about one-third by buying them in Glendale instead of Los Angeles, according to O. J. Merrill of Coker & Taylor, 209 South Brand boulevard, who this morning commented upon the fact that these ranges are now being received in carload lots.

"This means that we can sell as few as five of them to any dealer at the same price which he would have to pay the Los Angeles jobber," he remarked. "Naturally, we can save the householder quite a bit. There's a range over there, for instance, which has been advertised in Los Angeles for $54. We are selling it for $39.75 right along."

This firm now has a whole carload of ranges stored in the basement. As soon as the weather gets a little more settled they will be moved to a nearby vacant lot and sold directly to the householder without the expense of unpacking from the crate.

"The Direct Action is the only factory in the world which reimburses its dealers in case a customer is not absolutely satisfied," stated Mr. Merrill. "We are offering thirty days' free trial with each range."

Verdugo Woodlands Property in Demand

The Glendale office of the F. P. Newport company on West Broadway, subdividers of the Verdugo Woodlands tract, report that this tract is selling out very rapidly. This statement is an amazing record of what has happened in this subdivision and is quite remarkable.

The tract originally contained about 110 acres of ground, which was subdivided, and the company has sold around $1,800,000 worth of lots in about nineteen months. There are now several fine homes there, it being a highly restricted residential district, and as soon as the weather settles there will be a number more started.

While this is located within the city of Glendale and close in it will have its own business district.

Big Business Builds Now, For It's Time

Big business and financiers are putting up buildings as fast as materials can be delivered to them. More commercial buildings and factories are under construction today than ever before.

Those who reason and study conditions know now is the time to build.

Does the fact that these men are spending billions of dollars for new buildings at this time mean anything to you, Mr. Home Builder? You can't make money by waiting—Now is the time to build.

Many long cherished possessions are within our reach. Certain luxuries are strongly tempting our dollars. Our newfound wealth is apt to warp our judgment. We are subject to momentary intoxication of prosperity and may make some foolhardy investment.

Happiness in Your Own Home

What a vast amount of satisfaction there is in owning your own home; where your own ideas and individuality can be fully expressed.

A GOOD HOME

is the best legacy ever left one's family. Why not own your home? Thousands are enjoying the privilege. It is no longer a luxury, but an economy. A home of your own is a constant bulwark against adversity, and a comfort in old age.

IF YOU PAY RENT

what have you to show for the dollars given the landlord? Nothing but a bundle of receipts. In buying a home you eliminate the necessity of paying rent and will eventually reap the benefits of your payments in having a home you can call your own.

WASHINGTON, March 18. — The agriculture appropriation bill for the next fiscal year carrying a total of $35,000,000 passed the house without a record vote. The total of the bill is $4,000,000 less than for the present fiscal year. The house restored an appropriation of $360,000 for free seeds by a vote of 173 to 147.

What you have the right to demand from electricity

CONVENIENCE, durability, economy—in the present state of electrical development you are entitled to demand all these from your electrical installation and should be satisfied with nothing less.

New inventions and improvements are constantly appearing—such as, for example, the new General Electric tumbler switch whose simple and convenient operation is shown in the illustration.

An easy and sure way to obtain up-to-date, standard materials and appliances is to look for the "check" mark of the Pacific States Electric Company. This mark identifies a complete line of electrical merchandise, selected from the markets of the world, inspected and certified by the Pacific States Electric Company.

These materials and appliances can be obtained through electrical contractors and dealers who are qualified as to their responsibility and technical competence.

The "check" seal, therefore, in the electrical field is a helpful guide in determining both quality of merchandise and competence of contracting service.

You will enjoy our new booklet "The Electrical 'How' for Householders" which lists some of these standard materials and appliances and describes their use in the progress of a typical day in an electrified home. It may be obtained free from any contractor or dealer displaying this seal.

N. B.—ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN!

The most profitable real estate investment in Southern California can be obtained through purchase of underwriting securities of the Palos Verdes Project. These securities are based on 16,000 acres or 25 square miles of the choicest land, with 14 miles of ocean front adjacent to Los Angeles with all street improvements paid for, title to which, free and clear of any incumbrances, is held by the Title Insurance & Trust Company, a corporation possessing $70,000,000 of assets, as absolute security to every investor.

We believe we can show how the purchase, on easy installments, of $1000 convertible notes, can, within 12 months, be converted into real estate of at least $4000 value, or a profit of $3000. By that time you will not have paid in $500. Larger or smaller investments will work out in the same proportions.

Let us give you the facts and you decide whether we are right. See the large map of Palos Verdes in our window and call in office for free booklet.

A ONE SIDED ARGUMENT

If you are paying $50 a month rent, in five years you lose $3840.20 (interest compounded), and have nothing to show but rent receipts. If you buy the strictly modern 5 room bungalow, with garage, on good street, which we can sell you at $4750—$1000 down—you won't have to dig up any more money on the first of each month, and you will own your home, free from incumbrance, in a surprisingly few years. Wouldn't you rather have a deed than a bunch of rent receipts? The first is as tasy to acquire as the last, but you must make a start. Figure a moment. How much have you paid out in rent since you began housekeeping? That rent money is gone. If you haven't a thousand to pay down, see us anyway, we may be able to locate you on considerably less; or you may have something to trade in. Procrastinate no longer. Announcement

J. P. Lampert and John Yung wish to announce that they have opened a real estate and insurance office across the street from the Glendale City Hall at 622 East Broadway, which will be known as the GOLDEN RULE Real Estate Office.

Our aim will be to get the buyer and seller together on a basis which will be fair to both.

If any one has property of any kind to sell at a fair valuation, it will please us to have you list it at the Golden Rule Office, and we will make an honest effort to sell it for you quickly.

Come in at any time; it will be a pleasure to us to show you the property we have to offer for sale.

We now offer for sale seventeen lots in a tract which we have recently subdivided on East Wilson Avenue, near the foothills, on the Glendale Eagle Rock car line, just six hundred feet north of the New Broadway Union High School Site.

These lots will be sold very reasonable; they are only from $1050 to $1750 per lot, and every one of them will make a beautiful place for a real, homelike home. Sidewalks and street curbing are in and paid for, with water and gas on all the streets.

Restrictions on Wilson Avenue are $3500 and on Sinclair and Richland Avenue, $3000.

Make your choice of these lots early. They will not last long at these prices.

We have several good buys in residence properties for a home or investment. Call and let us show you these properties. Phone Glendale 2345-J.

GLENDALE HEIGHTS FIRST UNIT IS QUICKLY SOLD

Guy Wilson Says Business Is Excellent; Improvements Made As Promised

Guy Wilson of 226 South Brand boulevard reports that things are booming in Glendale Heights, the first unit of seventy-six lots being sold in thirty days and the second unit now on the market is moving fast. Improvements are going ahead as promised, said Mr. Wilson today after a conference with Lon J. Haddock, president of the Haddock-Nibley Company, one of the largest realty subdivision firms in the west.

Glendale Heights will add approximately $2,500,000 value to the city of Glendale, according to Mr. Haddock. The property consists of approximately eighty acres fronting on the junction of Palmer avenue and Adams street. Its sky line is the southeasterly limit of the city of Glendale.

Lots Are Soon Sold

The lower part of the property has been blocked into lots of 50-foot frontage and cement sidewalks and curbing are being installed and the streets are to be made of 4-inch rolled, decomposed granite. This part of the property, consisting of some seventy lots, was sold out within the first week after being put on the market.

The balance of the property consists of a series of gently rolling, grass covered hills and this is being traversed by a series of 25 foot rolled granite driveways, making a gradual ascent to the hill top—which is crowned by a eucalyptus grove that can be seen from every part of the valley—of less than ten per cent grade at its steepest point.

Several prominent residents of Glendale have already secured choice home-sites fronting on these driveways and have announced their intention of building suitable homes thereon, none of which will cost less than $10,000, which gives some idea of the desirability of Glendale Heights as a residence section.

Street To Be Improved

Adams street, which traverses the tract north and south, is to be improved and it is hoped eventually to have it opened to Verdugo Road, thereby shortening the distance to Los Angeles approximately two miles.

According to Mr. Haddock the next sixty days will witness the erection of thirty or more houses on the property, the first house being already practically completed.

The water and gas will also be in within the next thirty days, and a large force of men and teams under the direction of Mr. Ferry, the local, well known contractor, is now busy putting in the streets and driveways.

One of Show Places

"We are planning to make of Glendale Hights one of the "show places" of Southern California," said Mr. Haddock, "and to that end we are endeavoring to restrict it in such a way only as to insure a desirable class of residents. Our building restrictions vary according to the section of the tract, from $3,000 up to $10,000. We are trying to make the property a homing place for people who really desire to have some choice as to their neighbors and immediate environment and all restrictions are as modest as is consistent with this end.

"One of the highly gratifying features connected with the opening of Glendale Heights has been the splendid cooperation we have received from Mayor Spencer Robinson, City Manager Reeves, City Engineer Hill and, in fact, the entire city administration. It is this kind of cooperation that induces men of capital and men of enterprise to come and assist in holding Glendale in the front line of the growing cities of America."

Glendale Plumbing Co. Does Prominent Work

Intrepid workmen are to be seen on the top story of the Pendroy dry goods store building completing the cornices. It is only part of the life led by the mechanics employed by the Glendale Plumbing company, one of the city's foremost sheet metal works.

If you will notice carefully the detail of workmanship on the cornices and the marquise, you will readily know that it is a master job. And that isn't all of it. The same firm prepared the marquise for the Citizens' Chamber of Commerce building and has done many other jobs of a similar nature successfully.

P. J. Sheehy is manager of the Glendale Plumbing company and boasts being one of the few all-around artisans actively engaged in the business here. He will be pleased to consult with builders as to their needs.

GARDEN BIG ASSET TO HOME; EXPERT PRESENTS HINTS

Great Deal of Care Required to Make the Best Use of Grounds About House

By R. E. DOWNING of Downing & Cox Nurseries,
118 South Brand Boulevard

Merely having a house and garage does not fulfill the desire of a home. This is the first step, but then comes your garden, trees, flowers and shrubbery. Careful thought and planning should be given to this part of the home, the same as you would give to the interior finish and decorations. A great many people give too little thought and attention to the outside decorations. With a little planning of the proper trees, shrubs and flowers, planted in the right place, will make a home a real "homey" place.

Starting at the rear, the garden should be planted to give you a variety and succession of fruits and vegetables. An ordinary city lot will accommodate two peach trees, an early and late, such as the Elberta, which ripens the middle of July, and the Salway, first of September, both of which are excellent freestone, table and canning peaches, one plum, either the Satsuma, Santa Rosa or greengage, a royal apricot, an orange and a lemon.

Fresh Vegetables

For two or three years garden truck can be grown between these trees. A small space set aside for the garden will furnish an ordinary sized family with fresh vegetables the year round. Two short rows of strawberries and three or four vines of blackberries will surprise you by the number of berries they will produce during the season. If there is room for them a couple of plants of rhubarb, two guavas and two grapes are highly desirable.

If the home should face south then the rear should be planted to shrubs and plants that thrive in the shade, such as ferns, farfugium (leopard plants), aspichstra, begonias, coleus, calla lilies, anemonies and others. For vines in the rear the Tacoma or trumpet vine is one of the best. The side of the house next to the driveway is a very desirable place for perennial flowering plants, such as geum, penstemon, wall flowers, sweet Williams, agathea and others. On the opposite side can be used shrubs, the larger growing ones at the rear and lower ones to the front.

Large Variety

There is such a large variety of plants suitable for the front yard that it is hard to name them all, but a few are the different cotoneasters, crataegus, laristiums, veronica, enonymis (silver, green and variegated), melalenca, nandina, malunia, pettosporum, eugenias, heather and many others.

The roses should be planted where they can get the maximum amount of sun and should be fertilized very heavily. They are very likely to mildew if planted in even partial shade. They should be examined frequently for aphis and green fly. The former requires a nicotine spray and the latter a sulphur solution spray.

The soil of Glendale varies from decomposed granite in the north to a heavy sandy loam in the south, near adobe in the east to light sandy soil in the west, so that working conditions, irrigation and fertilization varies with the soil.

Keep Ground Moist

It is impossible to have a hard and fast rule as to when and how much to water, but it is best to keep the ground moist during the dry season with frequent cultivation, and it is also best to run the water to the roots, rather than to sprinkle.

Fertilize freely but carefully, unless using well rotted manure, as fresh manure contains lots of heat and is likely to injure the plants if placed close. Never put fertilizer around the roots of plants or trees when planting, as this will kill them nine times out of ten.

A little home, some fruit trees, flowers and a garden in Glendale, a real home city, is worth while.

No Children Wanted! That's Landlord Sign

A home with a bit of ground, flowers, and sunshine is the birthright of every child.

The early years of youth when character is formed—when environments make their lasting impressions is when home and its surroundings of love and sentiment are most vital to human development. Give them in their childhood that feeling of freedom and independence that never comes to the child of a tenant.

Build a home of your own where no one can hang a sign "No Children Wanted," where no one can bring a flush of shame or anger to your cheek by turning you from their door because little children must be housed.

Make the memories of your children be those of "Home, Sweet Home."

Instill into their young hearts that love of home, the one great force upon which peace, freedom and civilization is founded.

A home with a yard and garden where flowers may grow and laughing children romp and play should be the first ambition of every American family.

MAN SMOTHERED TO DEATH

LOS ANGELES, March 18.—The efforts of Charles Walton, aged 39, a painter who lived alone at Santa Maria, near Santa Barbara, to perform household work resulted in his death. Walton was smothered in his home by smoke from burning clothing that he was preparing to wash.

MUCH ACTIVITY IS SHOWN IN MEEKER ORANGE MANOR

Residential Property to Extent of More Than $150,000 Is Sold; New Homes Built

More than $150,000 in choice residential property has been sold in Meeker's Orange Manor, Ruddick & Driver, the selling agents, report and the last of the lots will be gone by next week, it is anticipated. Already in the three months of activity ten houses are either built or under way and others are to be started immediately. The city improvements are being rushed to completion.

It seems that almost before the majority of people who want to have homes of their own are awakened to the fact, the great share of vacant property in Glendale is snapped up, for lots such as are offered in Meeker's Orange Manor are mighty nigh impossible to duplicate at anywhere near the price.

Single Family Residences

Practically all of the purchasers are family people and the restrictions limit the buildings to single family residences—no bungalow courts or apartments being permitted in the several blocks within a stone's throw from the new site for the Glendale Union High school.

Then, too, the Broadway school is but two blocks away for the little tots and the East Broadway extension and the Adams street bus line of the Pacific Electric and the Wilson avenue Eagle Rock line are right by. Stoles, also, are to be found in the vicinity supplying the necessities of life.

Happy Days Ahead

Only a word picture can be painted of the little Spanish bungalows and other types of homes which are being built in the beautiful orange grove nestling between the hills in eastern Glendale. The happy hours and happy days ahead for those who buy now for the future cannot be numbered.

You would grow enraptured at the stories told of homeseekers who meet Mr. Walters, salesmanager for Ruddick & Driver, and feel overjoyed that there is something in California that exactly suits them. Roam out there tomorrow in your motorcar and see what is still offered, is the advice of Mr. Walters. "Remember, it is the last call for this marvelous selling piece of property in Glendale."

Many Realty Boards of State in Campaign

Reports received by the California Real Estate Association from local realty boards throughout the state indicate a statewide interest and support of the association's Own Your Own Home and Build Now campaigns. In nearly every city of 4,000 or more inhabitants the local civic bodies are cooperating with the realtors in this substantial movement to relieve the housing shortage which exists in California. The week of March 19 will be a big week for all California.

Governor Stephens' proclamation in support of the Own Your Own Home drive has been supplemented by local Build Now proclamations issued over the signature of the mayor.

In addition to these official recognitions of the campaign for more homes, the state chairman of the Own Your Own Home movement, Harry H. Culver of Los Angeles and Culver City, has issued an appeal and comprehensive program of events for the big week.

The pastors, the teachers and pupils, the theaters, the civic bodies, and the fraternal and social organizations are cooperating in the big drive. The financial industrial and commercial interests are heartily in favor of this work. On a statewide basis it means a big boost to prosperity. Building conditions are getting better in nearly every community, and in some cities, notably in Los Angeles, Long Beach, San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento, Pasadena, Berkeley, Santa Ana, San Diego, new construction is going ahead on a greater scale than at any time in many years.

The press of California has caught hold of the idea of an Own Your Own Home campaign with the accustomed celerity and enthusiasm of the publishers. Scores of letters have poured into the California Real Estate Association, and to State Chairman Harry H. Culver asking for the official details of the drive. This program was worked out two weeks in advance by the state chairman, and all newspapers, realty boards, and directors of the association were supplied with the facts and plans. Indications are that as a result of this statewide cumulative movement in behalf of home building and real estate investments that at least 1000 full pages will be given to the news and advertising of the grandest work in which any community can do at this time, President C. C. C. Tatum of the state association declared. He estimated also that as a result of the association's Build Now drive not less than 10,000 new homes would be constructed in California.

NO IMMEDIATE PAYMENT

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 18.—The United States has no intention of demanding immediate payment of the bill for maintaining the American army of occupation along the Rhine, it was stated offcially. The United States does want, however, to establish clearly above all disputes recognition of the right of this government to a share of Germany's current payments under the priority clauses of the armistice agreement and the Versailles treaty.

The
Home Beautiful
When your home nestles in the lap of beautiful flowers, shrubs and trees it has a different meaning to you—the REAL home love is awakened and Nature's setting floods it with a sense of rest and peace. The quiet seclusion offered by Nature's wonderful ornaments, tastily clustered about the most humble abode, transforms it into a thing of beauty and a joy to all.
Make your home "Homey"—you can do it with little expense, and we have men here who are wise in the art of making the home beautiful by the artistic arrangement of flowers, shrubs and trees. Their services are yours—bring your problems to us for help in their solution. You will find here shrubs and flowers and trees in a wonderful variety—both native and foreign—good, strong, sturdy stock, and true to name.
PLANT NOW
Besides the great satisfaction of beautifying your home, you greatly increase its value in dollars by well placed, well developed trees and shrubs—and this development continues day after day, bringing you wonderful returns on the small investment—besides the great comfort and peace which is yours in a REAL home.
